Tempers Flare At Senate Probe

Stevens Asked About 'Threatened Reprisals' Against General Who Co-operated With Joe

WASHINGTON (AP)—In an atmosphere of ever-growing bitterness, the Senate's McCarthy-Pentagon investigators began delving Wednesday into the question whether Secretary of the Army Stevens "threatened reprisals" against a general for praising and co-operating with Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis).

This new line of inquiry developed near the end of a hectic day punctuated by irate exchanges between McCarthy and opponents—especially over new Army charges of de luxe treatment for a drafted aid of the senator's, Pvt. G. David Schine.

The language got inflamed at that point, McCarthy cried "Smear!" and called the televised hearings a "circus." Later Gen. Lawton he accused Stevens of "flagrant dishonesty," and the usually mild-mannered Army secretary flared back: "I deeply resent the suggestion."

The offer was unanimously approved by the Senate Subcommittee, temporarily headed by Sen. Karl E. Mundt (R-SD).

McCarthy tangled, too, with Assistant Secretary of Defense H. Struve Hensel, protesting the number of generals surrounding Hensel in the hearing room and contending such high officers should not "dignify" the Pentagon official.

Reddening, the six-foot-four Hensel reared up and demanded—but did not get—an apology. Hensel—like Stevens and Army Counsel John G. Adams—is a

22 Soviet Divisions Ready In Germany

Ready-Made Armored Spearhead Spotted For Rapid West Advance

By ELTON C. FAY
WASHINGTON (P)—Washington heard Wednesday night that Russia has a ready-made spearhead of 22 divisions, most of them armored outfits, spotted in Germany where they could advance rapidly into Western Europe.

Within 30 days of the jump-off on any such attack, Soviet and satellite countries could muster 400 divisions, it was stated. The total of men under arms in Russia, Eastern Germany and in East European satellites is placed at over six million, of whom about 4½ million are in ground armies.

The Soviet Union's 20,000-plane fleet of fighters, battlefield bombers and heavy bombers is being converted swiftly into a deadly and completely modern jet force.

White House Talk
This new assessment of Communist military power came from informed diplomatic officials who may not be identified otherwise, became available coincidentally with an hour-long White House conference of President Eisenhower and Admiral Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, who landed in Washington Tuesday after a quick trip to Europe which included a talk with British Prime Minister Churchill.

Arrayed against this Communist strength is about 100 divisions available to the supreme command of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization forces, with about 2,000 planes in condition to fight immediately. These later figures were disclosed recently by Gen. J. Lawton Collins, United States representative on the military committee of NATO.

But the United States still remains far ahead of Russia in air power, Rep. Scrivner (R-Kan) told the House during debate on a military appropriation bill. Scrivner is chairman of an appropriations subcommittee that handles Air Force funds.

Suicidal Missions
Compared to Russia's 20,000 planes, he said, this country has 21,000 in its Air Force alone, and another 10,000 assigned to the Navy and Marines. He contended, too, that Russia has no long-range bombers capable of attacking the United States and returning to a Soviet base, although "one-way suicidal missions over this country are, of course, possible."

"Our planes are superior in quality, our pilots are surpassed by none in skill and courage" and "our production capacity exceeds that of the Soviet," he said.

Although Russia is probably working on better planes, he said, the only long-range bomber it has "in any considerable number is the TU-4, a copy of our B-29. It is not capable of bombing any place in the United States and returning to the Soviet base."

Fortress Assault Is Repulsed

HANOI, Indo-China (AP)—French troops Wednesday hammered back attempts by Vietnamese rebels to crack Western barricades within 600 yards of the command headquarters of besieged Dien Bien Phu.

The Communist-led rebels were increasing their pressure also on Dien Bien Phu's southernmost stronghold—three miles from the center of the fortress and cut off from road communication with it.

There was no estimate on the forces involved in clashes at either point, or any announcement on casualties. Earlier the French said their patrols killed 25 Vietnamese and captured one in brief forays to test enemy strength.

Additional fortifications were being built within the hard-pressed main fortress area, now less than a mile in diameter.

The main rebel pressure at the Isabelle stronghold was on the Eastern bank of the Youm River, which flows through the heart of the Dien Bien Phu plain in Northwest Indo-China.

French military sources said the rebels were expected to launch an attempt soon to smash the stronghold and then move north in a drive to tighten the noose around the main fortress area, Isabelle. Like the fortress heart, is being supplied by parachute drop.

'Property Class' Amendment Killed

By ARCH DONOVAN
Star Staff Writer
The Legislature spent practically all day Wednesday listening to debate on LB 4 which if approved as a constitutional amendment would give the Legislature authority to prescribe standards and methods of assessment of various classes of property.

At an executive session the joint Revenue-Judiciary Committee which held the hearings voted 9 to 1 to indefinitely postpone the bill.

Proponents of the bill insisted that the change is necessary to meet changing economic conditions and that the present Constitution is rigid on assessing all classes of property on the same basis on any pre-determined assessment date.

Opponents of the bill placed all blame for present dissatisfaction with taxing methods on the administration in past years and contended satisfactory laws can be passed under the present Constitution.

Attorneys pointed out that some classes of property are now being assessed on a different basis than other classes and that the laws have been upheld by the Supreme Court while other class changes have been ruled unconstitutional.

Insurance Firm Plans Building On North 15th

Plans of the Security Mutual Life Insurance Co. to erect a new office building facing 15th between P and Q have been pushed ahead with City Planning approval of the vacation of the west 200 feet of the alley from 15th to 16th between P and Q.

The company had informed the Commission that closing of the alley was essential to permit space at the rear of the building. A structure with 40,000 square feet of floor space is planned, according to President Ted Sick.

About one year will be needed for planning the building, said Sick, with occupancy planned for the spring of 1957. There will be at least two stories plus a basement, he said, with the exterior probably of Indiana limestone.

Security Mutual moved in 1947 to temporary quarters in the Trust Building after selling its office building at 12th and O. About 70,000 square feet or two-thirds of a square block at 15th and P is under purchase contract at this time, said Sick.

The real estate transactions have been handled for Security Mutual by Blanchard Anderson of the First Trust Co., Loomis and Johnson and Lloyd True.

FBI Report Very Helpful

Sheriff Back From Washington, D. C.
An FBI laboratory report on the physical evidence in the slaying of Penitentiary Guard John Claussen "was extremely helpful," County Attorney Frederick Wagener said Wednesday night.

Sheriff Merle Karnopp, who had taken the evidence to Washington for examination, arrived back late Wednesday.

The FBI report, Wagener said, "will be beneficial to us in the continuation of the investigation."

Would Not Say
Wagener would not say when he believed the investigation will be concluded.

Karnopp said he received a "priority" from the FBI which allowed a man to be held for Sunday work in expediting the report.

"We were extremely fortunate in that respect," he said, "since it enabled us to rush the tests through."

Nixon Spells Policy

America Won't Tolerate March Into Indo-China

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Nixon declared U.S. foreign policy has spelled out a warning to Russia and Red China that if they march into Indo-China they "run the risk that the United States would retaliate directly against them."

Nixon told the U. S. Chamber of Commerce that is what is meant by the policy set up by Secretary of State Dulles of relying "primarily, though not exclusively, on a massive retaliatory attack, at times and places of our own choosing, in reply to any new aggression."

But Nixon assured the gathering of some 3,000 American business leaders that the Eisenhower administration will avoid "if we can" sending U. S. troops "to fight in Indo-China or anywhere else in the world."

That is the administration's major aim, he said.

Nixon emphasized, however, that the administration will not resort to "a policy of weakness or inconsistency" to achieve its aim.

Group Extended

The Vice President's implied warning to Russia and Red China against direct intervention in Indo-China came against a background of Far East reports suggesting that Communist China may be moving to extend her grasp on southeast Asia.

Dispatches from Formosa quoted the official Chinese Nationalist news agency, Ta Tao, as saying Red China has decided to create immediately a "south-east Asia liberation force" of more than 50 divisions—including 27 from Communist China—to counter any Western alliance in the Pacific.

In other developments keyed to the Indo-China crisis: 1. Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, gave President Eisenhower an hour-long report on his trip to Paris and London to discuss the Indo-China situation.

2. Rep. Coudert (R-NY) drafted an amendment to a defense appropriations bill which would deny authority to President Eisenhower to send American troops to Indo-China without advance approval from Congress.

The House may debate Coudert's proposal Thursday.

3. Diplomatic informants in London said the United States is pressing its Western Allies to make a public pledge of quick help for France in resisting Communist conquest of Indo-China.

4. Red China's Foreign Minister Chou En-lai, speaking out at the Geneva conference in Switzerland, demanded that all foreign military bases in Asia be abolished and all foreign troops withdrawn.

5. In Paris, French Premier Laniel and Vietnamese Deputy Premier Nguyen Trung Vinh signed a joint declaration designed to establish immediately the "total independence" of Viet Nam, the largest of the French-sponsored states in Indo-China.

Red China At Geneva Demands: 'Asia For Asians'

Chou En-Lai Denounces West Policy

Dulles Sees Little Hope Of Progress

GENEVA (AP) — Red China's Premier Chou En-Lai, admitted to the councils of the world's major powers for the first time, Wednesday rejected American policy in the Far East. He called for a program of "Asia for the Asians" with foreign troops and bases banned.

Chou spoke at the 19th session of the Eastern conference after U. S. Secretary of State Dulles rejected North Korea's proposals for all-Korean elections on the ground they would transform the country into a Communist puppet state.

Outside the conference hall work progressed on first steps toward halting the bloodshed in Indo-China. Russia suggested an immediate meeting of belligerents on the evacuation of French wounded from besieged Dien Bien Phu. The Soviet Union proposed also that representatives of the Communist-led Vietnam be admitted to the Geneva conference when it takes up the question of a peace settlement for Indo-China.

Bitter Attack
In a bitter denunciation of the West, Chou ranged over a wide field. He demanded a standing alongside the Big Four, opposed rearmament of Western Germany and even demanded a ban on the H-bomb. He supported the proposals laid down earlier by North Korea's Gen. Nam Il for settling the Korean problem. Chou's speech indicated little could be expected at Geneva on a Korean settlement.

"For the first time, the Chinese people are the real masters of their fate," he said. "No force can or will prevent China from becoming strong and prosperous."

Although 20 nations with a population of one billion recognize China, he said, the United States has withheld recognition because it dreams of establishing the remnants of the Kuomintang clique (Nationalist China) long ago thrown out of China by the people.

Dulles, in his first address to the conference, practically wrote off the possibility of making progress here on the Korea question in the light of Nam Il's proposals.

Referring to Nam Il's plan that all foreign troops be withdrawn, he said:

"The United States does not desire its troops to remain indefinitely in Korea. But we remember that once before we had our troops in Korea and withdrew them, as it turned out, prematurely."

Committee Kills One Amendment

There is no experience factor, he explained, to tell what the proposed changes will do. He predicted passage of the amendment would cause pressure groups to descend on the Legislature to seek special favor.

The former Creighton University law dean gave the committee a scholarly lecture on constitutions and the reasons and benefits from limitations placed in them.

Past President Merle Jones of Beatrice opposed the bill on behalf of Associated Industries of Nebraska. Chauncey Barney of Lincoln also opposed, saying he "felt concerned as a lawyer."

Joseph C. Reavis, Falls City, former legislator, urged the committee to consider themselves as a constitutional convention and only submit amendments they were willing to go before the voters and support.

Both members of the committee and members of the Legislature who attended the hearings expressed concern and disappointment because witnesses did not bring forth constructive ideas on how the tax problem can be improved.

The committee heard and held for further study a bill by Sens. Williams and Klaver providing that the state conduct a separate assessment for state taxes than valuations fixed by the counties. Max Fromkin, Omaha attorney, who appealed the Douglas County valuations to the Supreme Court supported the bill.

Several members engaged Fromkin in sharp questioning regarding his reputed placing blame for the Douglas County "tax mess" on the Legislature. He admitted that equality in local assessing could have avoided some of the troubles.

Stenglein presented the award. Cadet Earl F. Barnett of Holdrege, who received the Convoir Award as the outstanding sophomore planning to enter pilot training. Colonel Stenglein made the presentation.

Mother Held For Beatings

NORWALK, Calif. (INS) — Mrs. Trinidad Vera, 28, was booked on suspicion of felony childbeating after admitting that she kept her oldest daughter, Celia, 9, home from school so that authorities would not see the child's broken arm.

An examination of the pain-wracked child showed Celia had lost the sight of her left eye, that both of her arms were broken but never set, that she had welts on her back and recently had suffered a broken nose.

An investigator said it appeared that Celia, oldest of six children had been severely beaten with a rubber hose for the past year. The child's father is dead and the mother is pregnant.

Auto Field Anti-Trust Collusion Hinted

... Justice Department Concerned

NEW YORK (AP)—Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell said the Justice Department is concerned about possible anti-trust collusion in the multimillion dollar auto industry.

In a speech for the economic club of New York, he added: "We know well that increasing concentration in an important industry contains dangerous potentialities. . . . We want to find out whether this pattern is, nothing more than the consequence of competitive forces freely at work, or whether any one or more of the facts which amount to collusion or the suppression of competition has been at work."

Four Phases

His remarks followed by only a few days a disclosure by the Justice Department's anti-trust division that it is looking into four specific phases of the auto field.

The division expressed concern with the growing concentration of production in the hands of a few big companies with a resultant shrinkage in business among the so-called independent motor firms.

The auto industry has gradually constricted over the years until today the "big three"—Ford, General Motors and Chrysler—produce and market an overwhelming percentage of the nation's cars.

In Detroit, there was no immediate comment from the "big three" or smaller producers. Spokesmen for the firms showed keen interest in Brownell's speech and indicated top officials wanted time to study the text before commenting.

Ike Plays Golf

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower went to Burning Tree Club in nearby Maryland Wednesday for a round of golf. He left the White House shortly after noon.

J. Wallace DeBrown, formerly occupied a building at 1717 O. This building will be sold, but another DeBrown building, across the street from the new structure, will be retained as a used car headquarters.

The modern-design building to be shown to the public covers an area of 28,800 feet.

Its design employs modern auto service agency characteristics, among which are spacious service departments.

These departments have also been designed to eliminate "lost motion" in extending service to customers. This is accomplished by an organized "assembly line" operation.

In addition, control of operations is extended by a tower overlooking all areas of the service room, which comprises one floor. Part of the basement is occupied by a body and fender repair and painting department. Also located in the basement are new car storage rooms.

Frank DeBrown was honored in January, 1953, for 40 years of service in Lincoln. He received a plaque from the Studebaker Corp. The citation given to DeBrown said the Lincoln firm had one of the longest continuous existence records among Studebaker agencies.

Then-Mayor Victor Anderson praised DeBrown for "contributing to the social and economic growth of our town and nation."

Mrs. Duncan Rites To Be Held Friday

Services for Mrs. Ethel Grace Duncan, 58, Colorado Springs, Colo., will be at 2 p.m. Friday at Second Presbyterian Church. Chapel, the Rev. Rex Knowles officiating.

Mrs. Duncan, who died Wednesday in Colorado Springs, had lived in Lincoln most of her life, going to Colorado a year ago.

She came to Lincoln when she was 5 from Indiana, where she was born.

A member of Second Presbyterian Church here, she was active in church work.

She had been employed at the Lincoln Journal and belonged to Capital Auxiliary 11 of Lincoln Union 209 of the International Typographical Union and to the International Book Binders Union.

Surviving are her husband, Warren H. of Colorado Springs; a son, Howard of Lincoln; a daughter, Helen Evans of Marion, Va., and a sister, Mrs. O. W. Matzke of Ithaca.

Sen. Hill Finishes Treasurer Filing

State Sen. Ralph W. Hill of Hebron completed filing with the secretary of state Wednesday for the Republican nomination for state treasurer.

A three-term legislator, Hill has been a member of the Legislature's budget, banking and revenue committees, and is chairman of the small banking committee.

The only other filing so far for the office which Frank B. Heintze of Omaha will vacate next January has been that of William Slagle of Lincoln, an employee in the state auditor's office.

Heintze, who is completing his second term, is ineligible to seek re-election this year on account of a restriction in the state constitution. He announced in Omaha last week end that he would be a candidate for Douglas County treasurer.

Sound Judgment

Nebraska's Unicameral Legislature was well-advised when its members serving on a joint revenue and judiciary committee applied the ax to four of seven bills which proposed submission of constitutional amendments in relation to the Nebraska tax structure.

None of the four should have been incorporated in the constitution. Nebraska's constitutional convention of 1920 talked it over at great length and came to the conclusion that whatever tax provisions should be written, basically they should come through legislative action instead of constitutional processes.

One factor not mentioned thus far deserves attention.

The November ballot should not be loaded down with a slug of constitutional amendments, which at best could expect only casual attention and study. Chances are that a big bunch of constitutional amendments would lead most voters to conclude to vote "no," when some which may be submitted are steps in the right direction.

There was still the possibility that bills killed in committee might face another test if the attempt is made to raise them.

But thus far the Nebraska Unicameral has to its credit a course of wisdom.

It has revealed better judgment than the governor showed in calling this special session.

'Let Me Call You Sweetheart'

One of the most amazing developments in the hearing now being conducted by a Senate investigations subcommittee into the quarrel between Sen. Joe McCarthy and the Army is the complete abandon with which a certain four-letter word is being tossed around. Scarcely an hour goes by without somebody's being called "liar"—directly or indirectly, and most generally directly.

Here, for example, was an exchange as set forth in the news columns between Sen. McCarthy and Secretary of the Army Stevens Tuesday:

"Let's be a little more honest now," McCarthy said.

"What do you mean, 'be a little more honest'?" Stevens demanded, reddening. McCarthy ignored the question.

And why not?

For those who have been reading or listening in these recent days, the words, "he" or "liar," seems to have achieved a new connotation from those originally associated with them. Out here in this rough, tough, boisterous cow country where in the early days it was said men were men and . . . the application of the words, "lie" or "liar," called for action. Them days, it seems, are gone forever.

Now "lie" or "liar" apparently are terms of affection or endearment. One can almost reconstruct the scene so that the exchanges provoking use of the short and ugly word of other days now find something of this nature:

"Well, how are you, you old so-and-so?"

Just to make sure, we checked up on Webster who, in defining "liar," made it short, snappy and to the point:

"A person who knowingly utters falsehood; one who lies."

In pursuing the study further, we find these definitions of "lie":

"(1) A falsehood uttered or acted to deceive. (2) Anything which deceives; as, 'his cordiality was a lie.' (3) A charge of lying; as, 'to take the lie from none.' Syn. Untruth, falsehood. See 'falsify'—v. i.; lied, to utter falsehood with intent to deceive; to tell or to act a lie—to affect by lying; as, 'he tied himself out of trouble.'"

Could Webster be hopelessly out of date?

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE

A notice calls attention to the fact that the week starting Monday, May 10, running through until Sunday, May 16, has been designated as "Lilac Week" with special emphasis on the Sabbath date. Sponsoring the event is the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce.

This is more than an idle gesture. Not a little of the attractiveness of the city of Lincoln and its environs is contributed by its lilacs. There was inspired vision in many of the plantings which at blossom time present a lovely panorama for all who will take the trouble to have a look.

That planting leading to Pioneer's Park, the hedges to be found on school grounds and playgrounds, to say nothing of the thousands of lilacs which adorn Lincoln homes shortly will be at their best. All lovers of beauty will find "their best" most satisfying, indeed. Calling attention to "Lilac Week" is only one of the many activities of the Women's Division of the Chamber entitled to appreciation and commendation.

Nebraska's two representatives in the Senate—newly-seated Eve Bowring and the veteran Sen. Hugh Butler—both voted on roll call Tuesday to uphold the hand of Secretary Ezra Taft Benson in a test run of strength in the form of the Ellender amendment to extend the farm price support program at 90 per cent of parity for a year. Their votes are not surprising even though they may not reflect the sentiment expressed by the wheat growers and the corn growers of Nebraska in recent referendums. That is the way they think—and that's that—at least, for the present.

One of the benefits of these periodic Sowers trips often overlooked is that they enable the businessmen of Lincoln to get acquainted with the resources of Nebraska. There are exceptions, but most of us are more or less guilty of living entirely too much in our own little world. At this season of the year, with farm work moving forward at top speed, Nebraska has a special meaning for those who understand it.

The wheat fields are green, the freshly plowed fields, good to look upon, and let it be added that rural Nebraska has made great strides in the last 14 years. Best evidence of progress would be pictures of sections of the state taken in 1933 and pictures of the same areas today. We have come a long way, brother, in a little more than a decade, frequently through some of the programs which now are taking it on the nose in lusty criticism. There can be nothing but satisfaction and a growing pride for any observant Sower who embarks upon a thousand-mile trek through one of the more substantial agricultural states of the Union.

Missed in the news: Vice President Richard Nixon is an accomplished musician. He can sing the words to any song. Earlier in the month he had the startled members of the American Society of Newspaper Editors up on their feet and in the aisles when he suggested that it might be necessary to send American boys to Indo-China. In recent days he has been quite as outstanding in swallowing the words and notes of that original song, while singing a different tune. It is real genius when anybody succeeds in drowning out a sour note, blotting out earlier mistakes, and winning new audiences.

Let's Enlist

Everyone who has been in the Army knows that two generals by the name of Rise and Shine have run things the hard way from the beginning. So everyone ought to like the two new commanders Cohn and Schine. They make the buck private's life a bowl of cherries.

DREW PEARSON

Dulles Foreknew Geneva Problems

WASHINGTON—The troubles Secretary of State Dulles is having at Geneva were pretty well anticipated by him even before he left Washington. In fact, he outlined them fully and pessimistically during a closed-door session of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee just before he took off.

Secretary Dulles had received a report from the American embassy in Paris which caused him grave concern about the French government's stability and the French political situation generally. The French, it was reported, were becoming more and more torn apart, so that anything—even revolution—might happen.

Dulles touched on some of this briefly during his closed-door talks with senators.

"There's no telling," he said, "what the French might be saying to the Russians privately at Geneva."

Prodded by the Democrats, the secretary of state insisted that we couldn't rush France into granting independence to the three native states of Indo-China.

"When a man is holding a bandit, you can't keep beating him on the back of the head," shrugged the secretary of state.

It told how he had an appointment to meet Vietnam's emperor Bao Dai in Paris during an earlier trip, but the emperor never showed up. Dulles suggested confidentially that the emperor had been sunning himself on the Riviera and there were probably "too many restaurants between the Riviera and Paris."

WHY NOT FORMOSA?

Senate Majority Leader Knowland of California, sometimes called the "Senator from Formosa," wanted to know why Formosa and South Korea hadn't been included in the Asiatic NATO proposal.

"We can't do everything in a week," replied Dulles, acknowledging that Knowland's friend, Chiang Kai-Shek, may later be invited to join the Pacific Security Pact.

Dulles presided at the closed-door meeting and did most of the talking. One of his sharpest critics, GOP Sen. Styles Bridges of New Hampshire, had to leave early.

"Do you have anything you would like to say before you leave, Styles?" asked the secretary of state. Bridges smiled, shook his head, and walked out the door.

However, Senate Foreign Relations Chairman Alex Wiley of Wisconsin paused as he also was about to leave and remarked how "greatly disturbed" he was over the chance that Russia might use the Geneva conference to get world recognition for Red China.

"Your fears are unfounded," replied Dulles. "We will not recognize Red China at Geneva under any circumstances."

NOTE—Dulles didn't breathe a word about the special resolution he had asked congressional leaders to endorse at their last meeting together. Dulles had pleaded with them to push a resolution through Congress, approving in advance any action the President may decide is necessary to take in Indo-China. Both Republicans and Democrats overwhelmingly opposed the idea.

Though most senators fear McCarthy and few will criticize him publicly, not more than three or four really like him.

DORIS FLESON

"Republicans, Demos And Californians"

WASHINGTON—It has long been charged by serious students of politics that there are three major parties in the United States: Republicans, Democrats and Californians. The general failure to acknowledge this is responsible for the common complaint by California politicians that people—especially in Washington—don't understand them.

That complaint has just been renewed by Gov. J. Goodwin Knight, a registered Republican and the titular leader of California Democrats. Gov. Knight is in town to pick up, if possible, his state's share of Tidelands royalties—$62 million—and participate incidentally in a drought conference. (Please don't think for a minute that California has a drought but it was deemed polite to accept the President's invitation.)

The governor explained his unusual status and avowed his hope of maintaining it in the June primaries. By the time he had finished showering compliments on practically all other candidates running in California except Communists, but including Jimmy Roosevelt, it was clear that he was a true blue specimen of the California party.

The cause, of course, is the cross-filing system which permits every candidate to run under every party label. Other states have it but only Californians have become addicted to it.

Mr. Knight inherited the governorship when Earl Warren was appointed Chief Justice of the United States. The Knight claim to titular leader of the Democrats rests on the fact that he won both nominations for lieutenant governor. In the same election, Warren was easily re-elected governor, but a Democrat. Pat Brown, was swept in as attorney general.

California has a 3-2 Democratic registration but both United States senators and 19 out of 30 representatives are Republicans. Gov. Knight recalled nostalgically that back in 1932, Republicans en-

This applies to both Republicans and Democrats.

Chief reason is that McCarthy is essentially a showman, not a senator. His attendance record is the worst in Washington. He is off speaking in every corner of the United States instead of being on the Senate floor. He pays no attention to the tough, difficult legislative routine by which laws are passed. And, significantly, not one piece of legislation of any importance has ever passed Congress bearing his name.

In contrast is a quiet, unassuming senator who has been in Congress 18 years—Allen Ellender of Louisiana. The average newspaper reader in the North hasn't heard much about Allen Ellender. That's chiefly because he doesn't do much bragging, although he has a lot of things he could brag about.

Some of the most constructive bills in Congress were introduced or co-authored by the senator from Louisiana—including the Wagner-Taft-Ellender housing act for slum clearance, various sugar-quota bills, federal aid to education, the original farm price support bill, and the school-lunch program.

Some time ago, Sen. Ellender went to South America to study Communist infiltration there, and upon his return gave a comprehensive, closed-door report to the Senate Appropriations Committee. Other senators, including Joe McCarthy, listened intently as Ellender told how poverty, dictatorship and agents from Moscow had combined to spread the Communist doctrine in Guatemala, and to a lesser extent in some other countries.

Next day, Ellender got a phone call from the junior senator from Wisconsin.

"Allen," said McCarthy, "I heard your report on South America yesterday and I've got the TV and radio equipment all ready for you to testify tomorrow morning before my committee. We'll give you coast-to-coast coverage."

"Allen," McCarthy added, "I'm going to make a big man out of you."

Politely, Ellender said no. He explained that his report had been for constructive criticism, not publicity, that publicity would cause a wake of anti-U.S. feeling and set back the pro-American leaders of Latin America. He did not take the trouble to tell his Wisconsin colleague that when it came to being "a big man," he, Ellender, had his name on a dozen laws which had built up the nation; McCarthy had his name on none.

NOTE: Those who will defend McCarthy include a unit of South Dakota, Dikens of Illinois, Bridges of New Hampshire, and Welker of Idaho.

WHY THE PARATROOPERS

Here's why French paratroopers were rushed to Indo-China last week aboard American Globemasters.

What happened was that when Gen. John O'Daniel arrived in Indo-China, he found Gen. Navarre, the French commander, almost ready to write off Dien Bien Phu as a defeat. But O'Daniel persuaded Navarre to call for paratroopers from France and North Africa, and he promised transport planes to rush them to the battlefield.

Unfortunately, O'Daniel has warned Washington that it's still likely Dien Bien Phu will fall, chiefly because cautious Gen. Navarre failed to send in a rescue column during the dry season.

MAN'S BEST FRIEND

Face Of A Lion, Soul Of A Lamb

By ALLEN EDEE
Star Staff Writer

There are three sleeping beauties at the Carl Fisher residence at 2703 Winthrop that do not look sweet or innocent, sleeping or awake.

The heavy sleepers are Caesar, Dodo and Sorrowful Beans, three fierce-looking bulldogs that the Fishers admit are as lazy as a Mexican during a siesta.

Any one of the bulldogs can go to sleep at the drop of a hat. The squirrels and rabbits take advantage of the dogs' slowness. The small wild animals brazenly tease the dogs and then scamper to a safe place as the slower canines follow in hot but futile pursuit.

The dogs all have favorite spots in the Fisher home to lie down and "die" for an hour or two. Each of the pets even has his own bedroom to sleep in.

But despite their apparent laziness and ferocious appearance, the bulldogs are very quick to protect their masters and they love affection. The dogs are so jealous of one's sharing more limelight than another that to do the trick of "shaking hands" with one involves shaking hands or paws with all.

"It's protocol to shake with all," Fisher says, to avoid inter-canine friction.

A peculiarity of the three is that they like to fight over a favorite rubber bone. Fisher says that giving each dog his own rubber bone is useless. The dogs would simply not be content over having bones of their own; they would want to play with another dog's bone. So the dog tempers continue to flare because of their bullheadedness.

When the bulldogs get together, they sound like three wheezing engines, snorting through their blunt noses. And the "engines" really sputter when there is some excitement going on.

The forbidding features of the bulldog have scared many a person right out of his wits, but the Fishers will testify that they have never heard of a bulldog's biting a person, although their bark is quite ferocious. A Salvation Army man came to the door once and was met by Beans who plunged through the doorway to get out of the house.

The Fishers say the man was so frightened he forgot what he came for.

The two older dogs, Dodo, 5, and Beans, 2, have both been in dog shows and have carried off several blue ribbons. But Caesar, the four-month-old Caesarean-born bulldog, is growing up well proportioned and the Fishers are expecting better things of him.

The Fishers believe the bulldog has come a long way since he was first used for fighting bulls in England. Now only the physical features of the breed leave one a little hesitant about making buddies with a bulldog. All the bull-fighting temperament has been turned to love. The Fishers are satisfied that they have an unusual breed of dog that delights so in keeping clean and quiet around the house, and in appreciating the masters all the time.

In sunlight and in sparkle
It runs from wide sweeps—
Fair as a dreamer's country,
Green massed with cedar trees,
Strange as the fabled islands
Of sweet Hesperides.

And on its crescent beaches,
And on its rocky shore,
Through caves of coral limestone
The blue-green surges roar;
Leap and fall back . . . and foaming,
Leap and fall evermore.

There grows the orange eucalyptus
And there the blubird's wink,
And there the oleanders
Blush rose to mark the spring,
And all the salt, damp sea airs
Of southern countries sing.

Ah, then perhaps this island
Melts back into a dream,
Fades to a sunset glow—
Of cloud and golden gleam—
An Isle of myth and vision,
Where lost horizons gleam.

I honestly meant to write this column last Saturday morning aboard the S. S. Ocean Monarch, but the sun was so warm and the Atlantic so calm that I tarried on deck until lunchtime. After lunch I was far too drowsy to settle down to writing. Please forgive me for being late.

We were up bright and early this morning to watch Dave Garroway's TV program for two hours. New York went on daylight time last Sunday so it was really early. The University of Pennsylvania students had the spotlight most of the time. I could not see the monitor, but those who could would tell us when we were on. It was exciting and very interesting just to listen to those about us. Many of them seemed more delighted with J. Fred Muggs than with any other feature. After all, we couldn't hear a word they were saying, anyway. When Muggs was being fed, we were suddenly reminded that we hadn't had our breakfasts. But not a one of us left the window until after 10.00 a.m. (EDST).

It is now fourth lunar quarter. Tuesday evening the waning moon entered the flexed, watery and fruitful sign, Pisces. So today is a day to plant radishes, carrots, beets and onion sets. Tonight at 8:04 p.m., the old, old moon will enter the movable, fiety and very barren sign, Aries. Saturday, May 1, at 7:42 p.m., it will enter the fixed, earthy and semi-fruitful sign, Taurus. Sunday afternoon at 2:22, there will be a brand new moon, and next Monday, May 3, this new moon will enter the flexed, airy and barren sign, Gemini.

A letter from Helen Boehmer tells us Lincoln and Nebraska have had rain, that "early shrubs and fruit trees are a-bloom and lilac buds ready to burst!" — which brings to mind these lines: "Some years, May's scent of lilacs
Makes twilight's shadows long;
Yet lilacs, dreams and twilight
All blossom into song."
We are flying home, and shall be there before the first of May. So until another day—

FHA Funds

Lincoln, Neb.
To the editor of The Lincoln Star: "The Loopholes in FHA" (Star, April 28) was an excellent expose of some of the skulduggery that has been going on. The speculators were really financed by the taxpayers—"the government not only furnished the money free to the mortgagor but it gave him a bonus for coming and taking the money away."

Could there be any connection between this "easy money" and the big slush funds that seem always and everywhere available to fight much needed slum clearance and public housing? E.H.R.

An Honest Man

Lincoln, Neb.
To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Several weeks ago while at Pioneer's Park golf course, a wristwatch of both personal and tangible value was lost. This was found and turned in to the office by a gentleman named Jim England, and subsequently returned to me.

Since I have been unable to locate the finder and express my appreciation, I take this means of thanking him for his honesty and courtesy. Although I have been living in Lincoln only a relatively short time, all my contacts and dealings here have caused me to have great confidence in the honesty and integrity of the people in our community.

I am therefore grateful to Mr. England, not alone for returning my watch, but also for bearing out my great trust in Lincolinites.

Dirt Cave-In Claims Life Of 12-Year-Old Playmates Unable To Save Victim

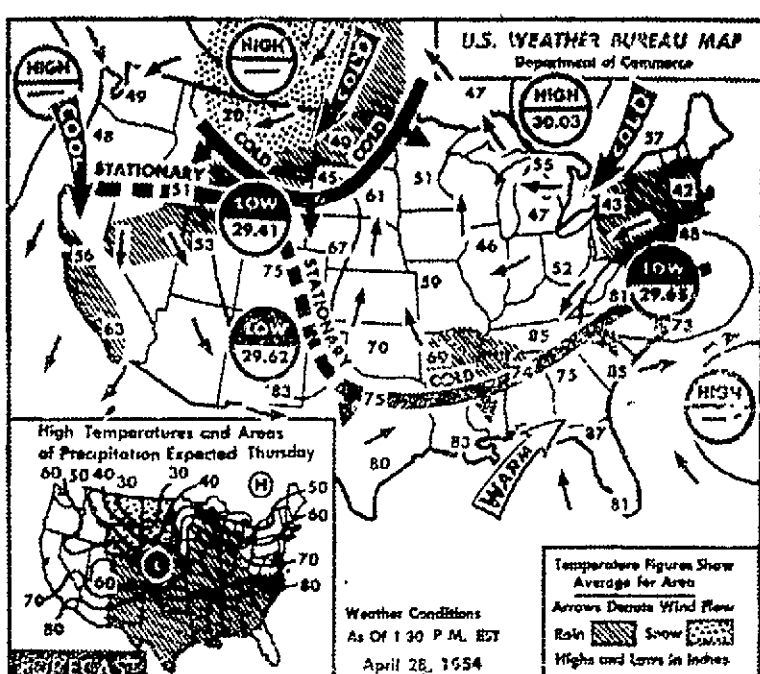

LEWELLEN, Neb. (AP)—Gary Steward, 12 year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Steward, died in a hospital some six hours after he had been buried in a dirt cave-in.

Gary and two other lads—Bairry Utt, 10, and Warren Smith, 11, were playing about a cave the boys had dug at the edge of town where sand and gravel are excavated.

Gary entered the cave but the other boys remained outside. It fell in burying him under about four feet of sandy dirt. The two lads first tried to free him, but when they saw they could not then ran for help.

Gary was dug out in less than a half hour and hospitalized. Dr. F. V. Vesely and nurses at the hospital worked over him several hours before he was pronounced dead.

Gary Steward also is survived by a brother, a high school student.

Fred Romsdal, 76, York.

Guest speaker at the gathering will be Everett G. Mitchell, agricultural director for the Chicago area of the National Broadcasting System.

DeWitt Funds For Building Move Upward

DeWITT, Neb.—An auction of spring chickens will be held on DeWitt's Main Street Saturday afternoon as a further step in the drive for funds for a community building.

The drive is being sponsored by representatives of the Civic Club, Merchants Coffee Club, the local American Legion post and auxiliary and the village board.

The board has contributed $5,000 from the village treasury, local businessmen have donated about $2,000 and the Hawes-Wood Post of the American Legion has given $500.

Tentative plans call for a guest-house type building with a quonset front. The 60 by 120 foot structure would house a gymnasium-auditorium with a small stage and meeting rooms.

Lots, located on Main Street, were purchased and cleared last year as a building site.

Senator Attends Her First White House Reception

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's new woman senator, Mrs. Eva Bowring of Nebraska, attended her first White House reception and after about an hour standing on marble floors commented:

"I'm doing fine. But I could sure use a horse."

Mrs. Bowring, boss of the Bar 99 ranch in Cherry County, Neb., and former state Republican vice chairman, was sworn in to replace the late Sen. Dwight P. Griswold.

Mrs. Bowring really got a workout at the reception. President Eisenhower held for members of Congress and their wives. Her graying hair had been freshly waved and her blue evening dress accented her blue eyes.

Less Of Federal Tax Money Going Back, Curtis Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Carl T. Curtis (R-Neb.) said less of the tax money collected by the federal government is finding its way back to the people who paid the taxes.

Curtis said that in the fiscal year 1950, out of every $100 collected $14.16 was returned in the form of federal grants-in-aid or payments to individuals in the states.

In fiscal 1953, only $5.78 out of every $100 collected was returned.

The return varied from $50.31 for every $100 in Mississippi to $2.20 in New York. Nebraska got back $10.46.

8-State Lutheran Group Elects; Synod Merger Is Discussed

GRAND ISLAND, Neb. (AP)—The Rev. Richard Jobman, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church in Norfolk, was re-elected vice president of the 8-state Midwest Synod of the United Lutheran Church in America Wednesday.

Also elected were two officers of the Midwest Lutheran, official monthly newspaper of the synod. They are the Rev. Martin Schroeder, pastor of Messiah Lutheran Church, Grand Island, editor-in-chief; and the Rev. W. F. V. Churchill, Creston, Neb., business manager.

Other synod officers were still to be elected at the convention which closes Thursday morning.

Dr. Franklin Clark Fry of New York City, president of the United Lutheran Church in America, spoke to the group.

Meanwhile, a vote will be taken on the proposed merger of the Midwest, Nebraska and Kansas synods. The proposed new "Central States Synod" would create a body of 71,000 members.

The Midwest Synod president, the Rev. Lorin J. Wolff of Lincoln, told the meeting "Evangelism is the very heart of the work of our church."

"In the past year we added 622 to our communing membership. The average gain in previous years was 352."

But despite the comparison, said the Rev. Wolff, "great opportunities lie before us with scarcely 50 per cent of the population in any church."

North Platte Man Will Seek Short Term Senate Post

WASHINGTON (AP)—Richard Dempster, North Platte merchant, announced he will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for senator from Nebraska.

Preference Customers Recognized

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Interior McKay has announced regulations to govern sale of non-firm power generated at federal dams in the Missouri Basin.

He defined non-firm power as "energy which is not available on a continuing or firm basis." McKay said priority rights of preference customers—co-operatives and public agencies—would be recognized but added the non-firm power would be sold only to customers who have or lease fuel-burning generating plants.

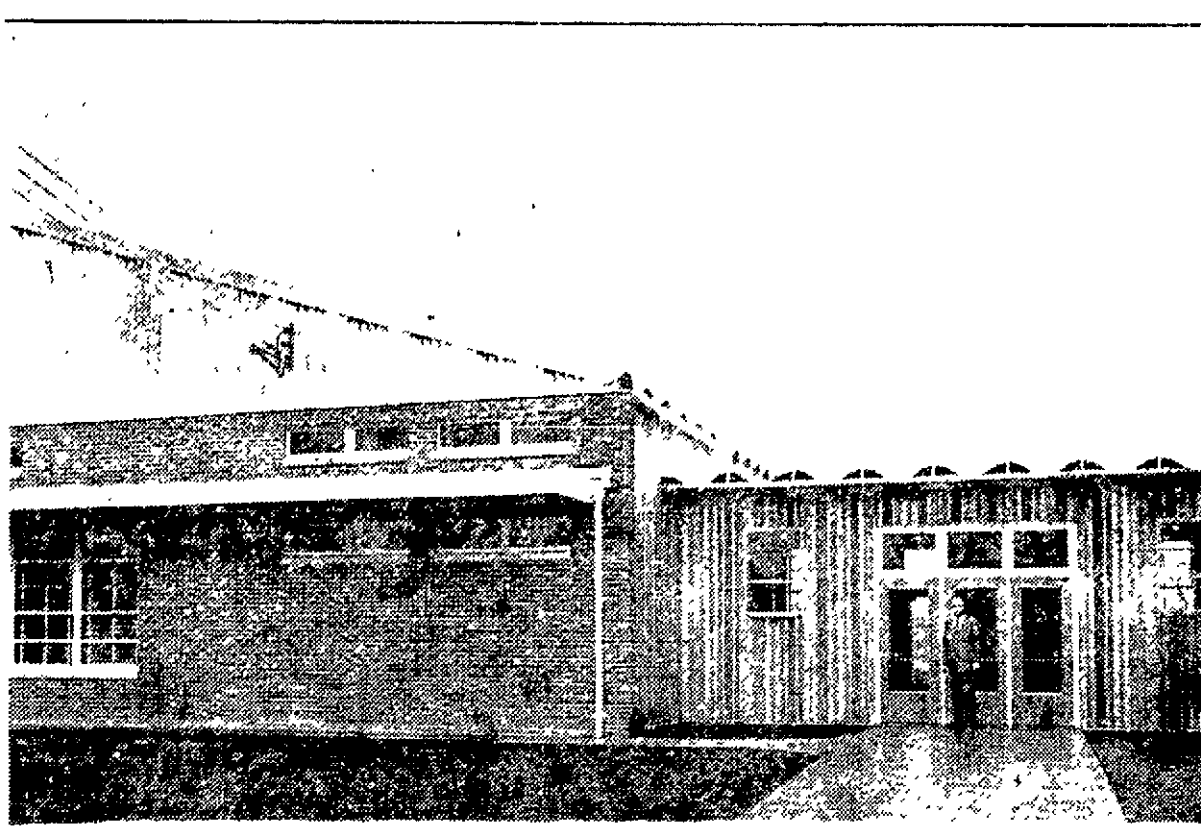

McKay said it was essential that the Reclamation Bureau's regional office receive applications at an early date to provide for substations and other facilities with adequate capacity for disposal of such energy by the time it is available.

Customers must bear any transmission costs, McKay said. Reclamation officials told a reporter no estimates were available on how much non-firm power might be produced.

Non-firm power is further classified as secondary power and dump power. McKay explained: "Secondary energy is that which is available for a considerable length of time and dump energy is that which will be available infrequently or for rather short periods of time. Secondary energy may be the result of seasonal runoffs and dump energy may be produced as a result of flash floods."

McKay said the rate for secondary energy, generally speaking, will be the energy portion of the corresponding wholesale rate schedule on "firm" power without the monthly demand or capacity charge.

The western division consists of Wyoming east of the Continental Divide, Colorado and western Nebraska. The eastern division is made up of Montana east of the Continental Divide, North Dakota, South Dakota, eastern Nebraska and portions of Minnesota and Iowa.

Val Was Guest Of GI Chamber During Tour Of Vets Hospital

WASHINGTON (AP)—T. A. Thomson, president of the Grand Island Chamber of Commerce, said Civil Defense Administrator Val Peterson was the guest of the Chamber when he visited the Grand Island Veterans Hospital recently.

Thomson's statement came in reply to a comment of Veterans Administration officials that the Civil Defense Administrator's visit had not been pre-arranged with hospital officials. The Grand Island VA hospital has been proposed as a possible site for Civil Defense headquarters.

"We regret very much the publicity concerning Val Peterson's visit to the Grand Island Veterans Hospital and would like to have it known that Mr. Peterson was a guest of the Chamber of Commerce and was there by invitation," Thomson said.

"The visit to the hospital took about 30 to 40 minutes and was a very pleasant one and so far as we know was without disruption to anyone. We regret that a statement was made which implied any discourtesy on the part of Mr. Peterson."

Utilizes Latest Sales and Service Facilities

New Building Covers Area 29,000 Square Feet

Interested in viewing the latest facilities for efficient auto sales and service incorporated in a building outstanding for decoration and design?

That's the thrill in store for Lincolnites when DeBrown Auto Sales Co. puts its new headquarters on display Thursday, April 29.

Lincoln's newest auto sales and service center is located at 17th and N. All Lincoln citizens are invited to attend semi-formal opening ceremonies from 7 to 10 p.m.

Here's what is in store for those who do.

Guests will enter the spacious new modernistic showroom from the N Street entrance. Models serving as hostesses will do the greetings, and present roses to lady visitors.

Organ music is to provide background atmosphere.

Five of the world's most beautiful cars—1954 Studebakers—will grace the showroom and be available for the inspection of visitors.

Moving through the showroom, guests will meet the DeBrown news and used car sales staffs and be greeted by Owners Frank and J. Wallace (Wally).

DeBrown. Then they'll see the well-organized, efficient parts department presided over by Larry Ruppert.

Moving into the spacious, first-floor service area, visitors will meet the experienced personnel in charge of general repair, lubrication, washing, wheel and brake service and tire service.

Service Manager Irvin Simon will show guests how cars are received at the 17th Street entrance, repair jobs quickly estimated, and how an ingenious control system maintains a complete check on the progress of each auto through the plant.

Every auto on the service floor can be viewed from a control tower above the service manager's office.

From the service floor, crowds will be invited to inspect the body and paint department at one side of the full basement.

Here, also, is plenty of storage space for new cars and spotlessly clean drying areas for autos sporting sparkling new paint jobs.

All employees will be on duty to answer questions about the operation of their departments and to demonstrate the last word in service equipment.

MODERN, SPACIOUS SHOW FLOOR—When the discriminating motorist thinks of modern design, he thinks first of Studebaker. So it's only natural that the showroom at DeBrown's be the last word in modernistic decor to blend with the new cars displayed there. Furniture, flooring, and lighting are all the latest thing and are designed for the utmost in customer satisfaction.

Complete Air Conditioning Units to Be Used To maintain year round Air Conditioning Summer & Winter.

Modern all the way through, the new DeBrown building has a complete air-conditioning system designed to keep the building comfortably cool during the hot summer months.

To maintain all year air-conditioning, a mixture of filtered air from outdoors flows constantly through the distribution system. The refrigerating coils connected with the air-conditioning unit are located in the same unit that distributes the heat during the cold weather. The air is cooled to the desired temperature as it passes through the coils during the warm months of the year.

H. L. Tisdale Is Sales Manager

HERSCHEL TISDALE—Sales manager and with DeBrown's for 11 years.

You're Invited To Come In For Demonstration And Appraisal

There's a treat in store for customers who visit DeBrown's during their grand opening week beginning Thursday.

—And it's an extra special treat which affects the area suffering the most these days—the pocketbook.

Here's the deal. During the grand opening, all DeBrown salesmen will be instructed to make deep price slashes on an individual basis.

Which means each customer will get more for his trade-in, or a juicy price cut on his buy.

And the policy applies everywhere. New Studebakers, used car values, wonderful Studebaker trucks—there'll be big buys in all of them during grand opening week.

Customers will do well to get in the market now and visit DeBrown's for a real eye-opening deal. The salesmen are ready to give bargains designed to make pleasantly-surprised buyers, satisfied customers, and lifelong friends.

An Old, Reliable Firm in a Brand New Building—An Unbeatable Combination

One of Lincoln's oldest and most reliable automobile sales and service agencies will inaugurate a new phase in its growth Thursday, April 29.

The DeBrown Auto Sales Co. will formally open its new building at 17th and N with Grand Opening ceremonies from 7 to 10 p.m.

A complete inventory of new facilities and parts, plus a full complement of trained, reliable auto service technicians, assure DeBrown customers of the same excellent service which has characterized the company since its founding in 1912.

Everything is brand new. The ultra-modern exterior of the building is fashioned with brick and marblite paneling.

Extensive plate glass windows provide a sidewalk view of the five cars and one truck in the spacious showrooms.

But the exterior is more than matched by the swank showroom and office areas.

Sales offices, the showroom itself, and the cashier and parts counters have all been designed to place customer comfort foremost. The elegant background merely emphasizes the high quality of Studebaker products and places them in an ideal setting so their quality features may be easily noted and appreciated.

Furniture in the showroom is of modernistic metal design which blends with the sweeping lines of the new Studebakers.

Customer areas feature pastel-tinted walls with tile floors. Woodwork, partitions, and the reception counter are done in burnished light oak.

When the building was designed, the planners had two things in mind, according to Wally DeBrown, a co-owner. "Customer convenience came first," he said. "Second, we wanted to eliminate lost motion and accommodate the latest and best equipment we could buy."

Even the quickest glance around the building indicates the designers did their jobs well.

Spaciousness is the dominant impression. The building covers a ground area of 28,800 square feet. The service and parts areas together occupy 23,600 square feet.

Building dimensions are 100 by 142 feet.

This planning is the latest thing in automobile agency design. It reverses the trend of huge showrooms with service areas on upper floors and in out-of-the-way corners.

Now the accent is on roomy service departments, easily accessible.

The roomy DeBrown service departments are divided between the general repair area on the main floor and a body and paint shop in the full basement.

Cars are expected to enter from the 17th Street entrance. Just inside the automatically-operated door are eight customer reception stalls.

There'll be no horn honking while waiting in a long line—not at the new DeBrown building.

You'll drive in, park in a diagonal stall. A courteous "ticket man" will greet you and give an estimate on needed repairs or service.

He can tell instantly when a department can accommodate your car. An electric "follow-matic" hanging over the service area indicates which department, can take work immediately, which will be free a bit later, and the ones which are full up.

After the "ticket man" takes your car, he'll probably step to the service manager's office close by and discuss the routing of the job.

This office is modernistic and functional with plate glass windows all around to give the manager a view of the ground floor service area.

Above it is a control tower where an efficient employee keeps tab on every car in the plant. She notes a car's arrival and its progress.

In this way, customers who call about the status of their cars can ascertain just what has been done and when the work will be completed. This control tower is also responsible for notifying regular customers by mail whenever their car is due for lubrication or a checkup.

Painted lines on the service area floor control the movement of cars.

The most modern lubricatorium facilities available are located opposite the 17th Street entrance. Oils and greases are dispensed from overhead reels and tubes.

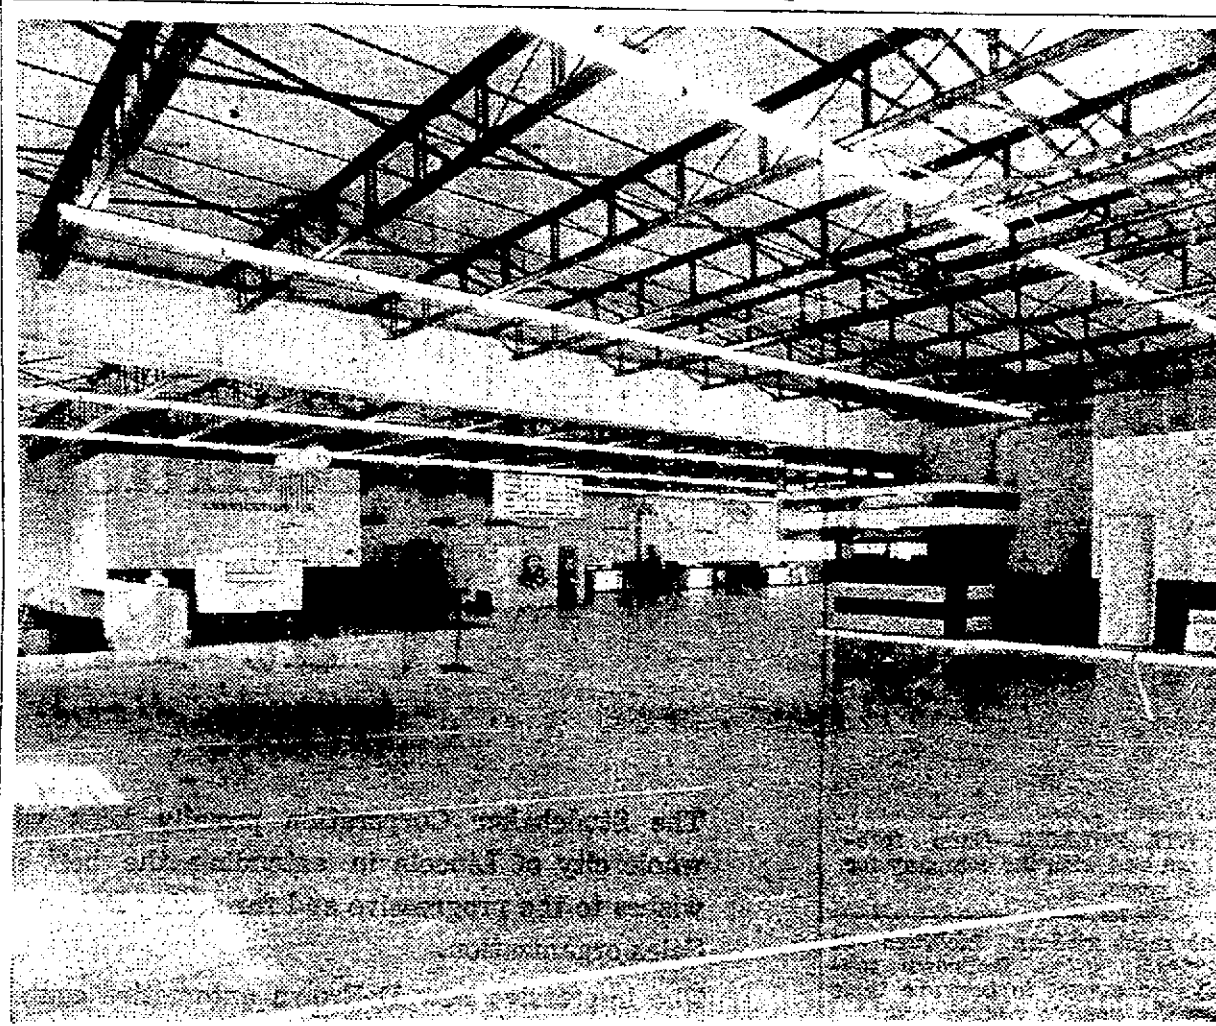

The grease rack itself is adjustable to put a car into any position for rapid, efficient lubrication.

Near the lubricatorium is a well-equipped washing area and a machine tool area partitioned by concrete block walls.

Individual work areas for each mechanic line the walls of the shop. Each serviceman has his own tools, well organized in sparkling white porcelain cabinets.

Lost motion is kept to a minimum throughout the building by efficient design. Departments are located so cars flow through the reception area, into the various divisions in logical order, then to a final inspection area to await the customer.

And to top off the layout, fluorescent lighting is used in all work areas as well as in the showrooms and offices.

NO CROWDING HERE—Spaciousness is the keynote in service areas of the new DeBrown building. Customers driving into the building from the 17th street entrance park in wide customer reception stalls (foreground) where courteous service men estimate needed repairs. A control tower (right) provides a vantage point from which progress of all cars in the plant may be seen. In the background are some of the 14 mechanic's stalls.

LUBRITORIUM—Here's the brand new lubrication center at DeBrown's. Overhanging reels hold tubes which dispense all grades and weights of lubricants. The rack itself is adjustable to allow the service man to gain access to every part of the automobile chassis needing lubrication. Note the clean, modern cabinets containing control mechanisms and testing equipment. It all adds up to complete lubrication jobs you can depend upon.

Bud Case Is Used Car Manager

ERNEST (BUD) CASE—Used car manager and another old-timer in the business.

H. A. Martin Truck Manager

HARRY A. MARTIN—Truck sales manager and with the company for 10 years.

Paint, Body Department Features Modern Facilities

Latest equipment for body and fender repair and painting is featured in basement shops of the new DeBrown building.

Ingenious equipment for making crinkled fenders look like new is manipulated by body repairmen having years of experience in automobile repair.

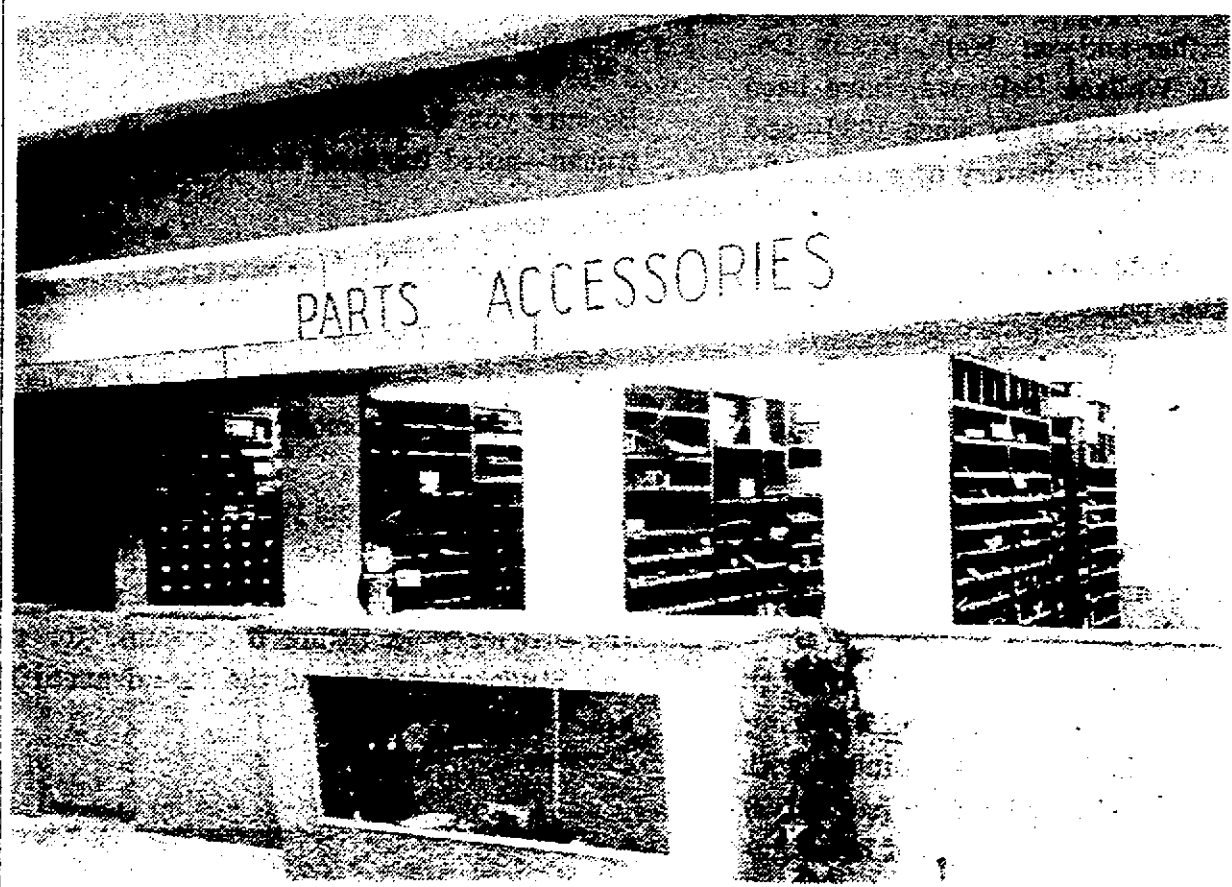

A brilliantly-lighted booth provides space for spray painting. The painting enclosure can be closed to keep out dirt and dust that might ruin an otherwise perfect paint job.

Paint and body repair departments were placed in the basement to hold down the amount of noise spreading throughout the building.

A smooth concrete ramp leads down to basement workshops.

Other basement space is devoted to storage for new Studebaker cars and trucks.

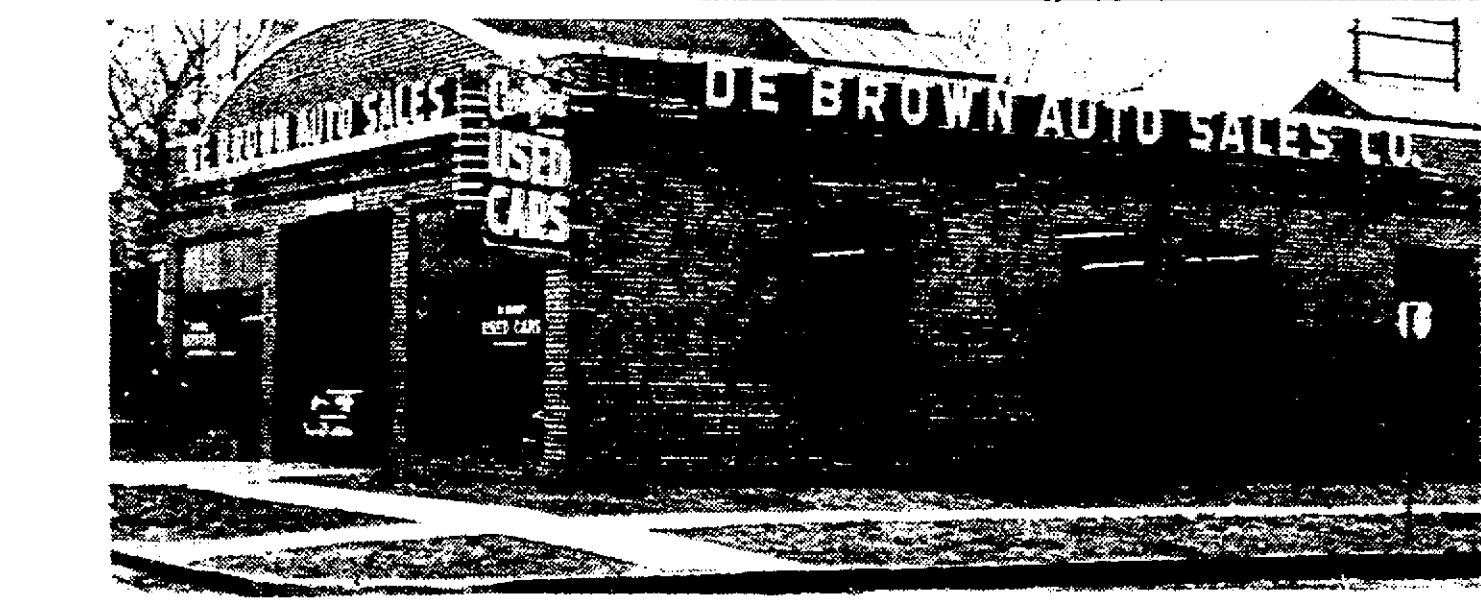

Also in the basement is a dock where pumps are located to force oils and greases through pipes to the upstairs lubricatorium.

PARTS DEPARTMENT—Organization . . . that's the keynote in the parts department at DeBrown's. A complete stock of Studebaker parts and accessory lines is maintained here to enable mechanics to do repair work quickly, efficiently and with the least expense to the customer. Also, a stock control system insures that the part your car needs will be on hand when you want it. No long delays.

Service First at DeBrown's

When a customer drives a new or used automobile from DeBrown's showrooms, the company figures its job is just half finished.

For, in addition to supplying gleaming Studebakers to Southeast Nebraska, a large part of DeBrown's program is keeping cars in top-flight condition.

That's why a generous portion of DeBrown's new building is devoted to service facilities.

Managed by experienced personnel with a total of nearly 225 years experience in keeping cars of all makes running efficiently and economically, DeBrown's service department is one of the top maintenance organizations in the Midwest.

ERVIN SIMON—Service manager and with the company for 33 years.

Low cost and quality work have been a tradition for DeBrown mechanics. Whether called upon to change a tire or install a new motor, the company's service staff has gained a reputation of performing superior work at moderate prices.

But DeBrown's hundreds of satisfied customers will receive even better service in the new building. With latest tools and the most modern facilities at their fingertips, DeBrown mechanics expect to improve their already notable past record.

"Service is the Keynote"—that's the boast that could be made for the eight top men in the DeBrown Studebaker agency—and a boast that pays off for the customer when he comes in for service.

Frank and Wally DeBrown, father and son combination that runs the organization, can claim better than 60 years between them.

All of the 22 employees count many years of experience, but the longest of the "long-terms" are Ervin Simon and Pete Folmer.

LAWRENCE RUPPERT—Parts department manager and with DeBrown's for nine years.

Simon, service manager of the company, has worked for DeBrown's for 33 years, and it is not hard to see that he knows his work well.

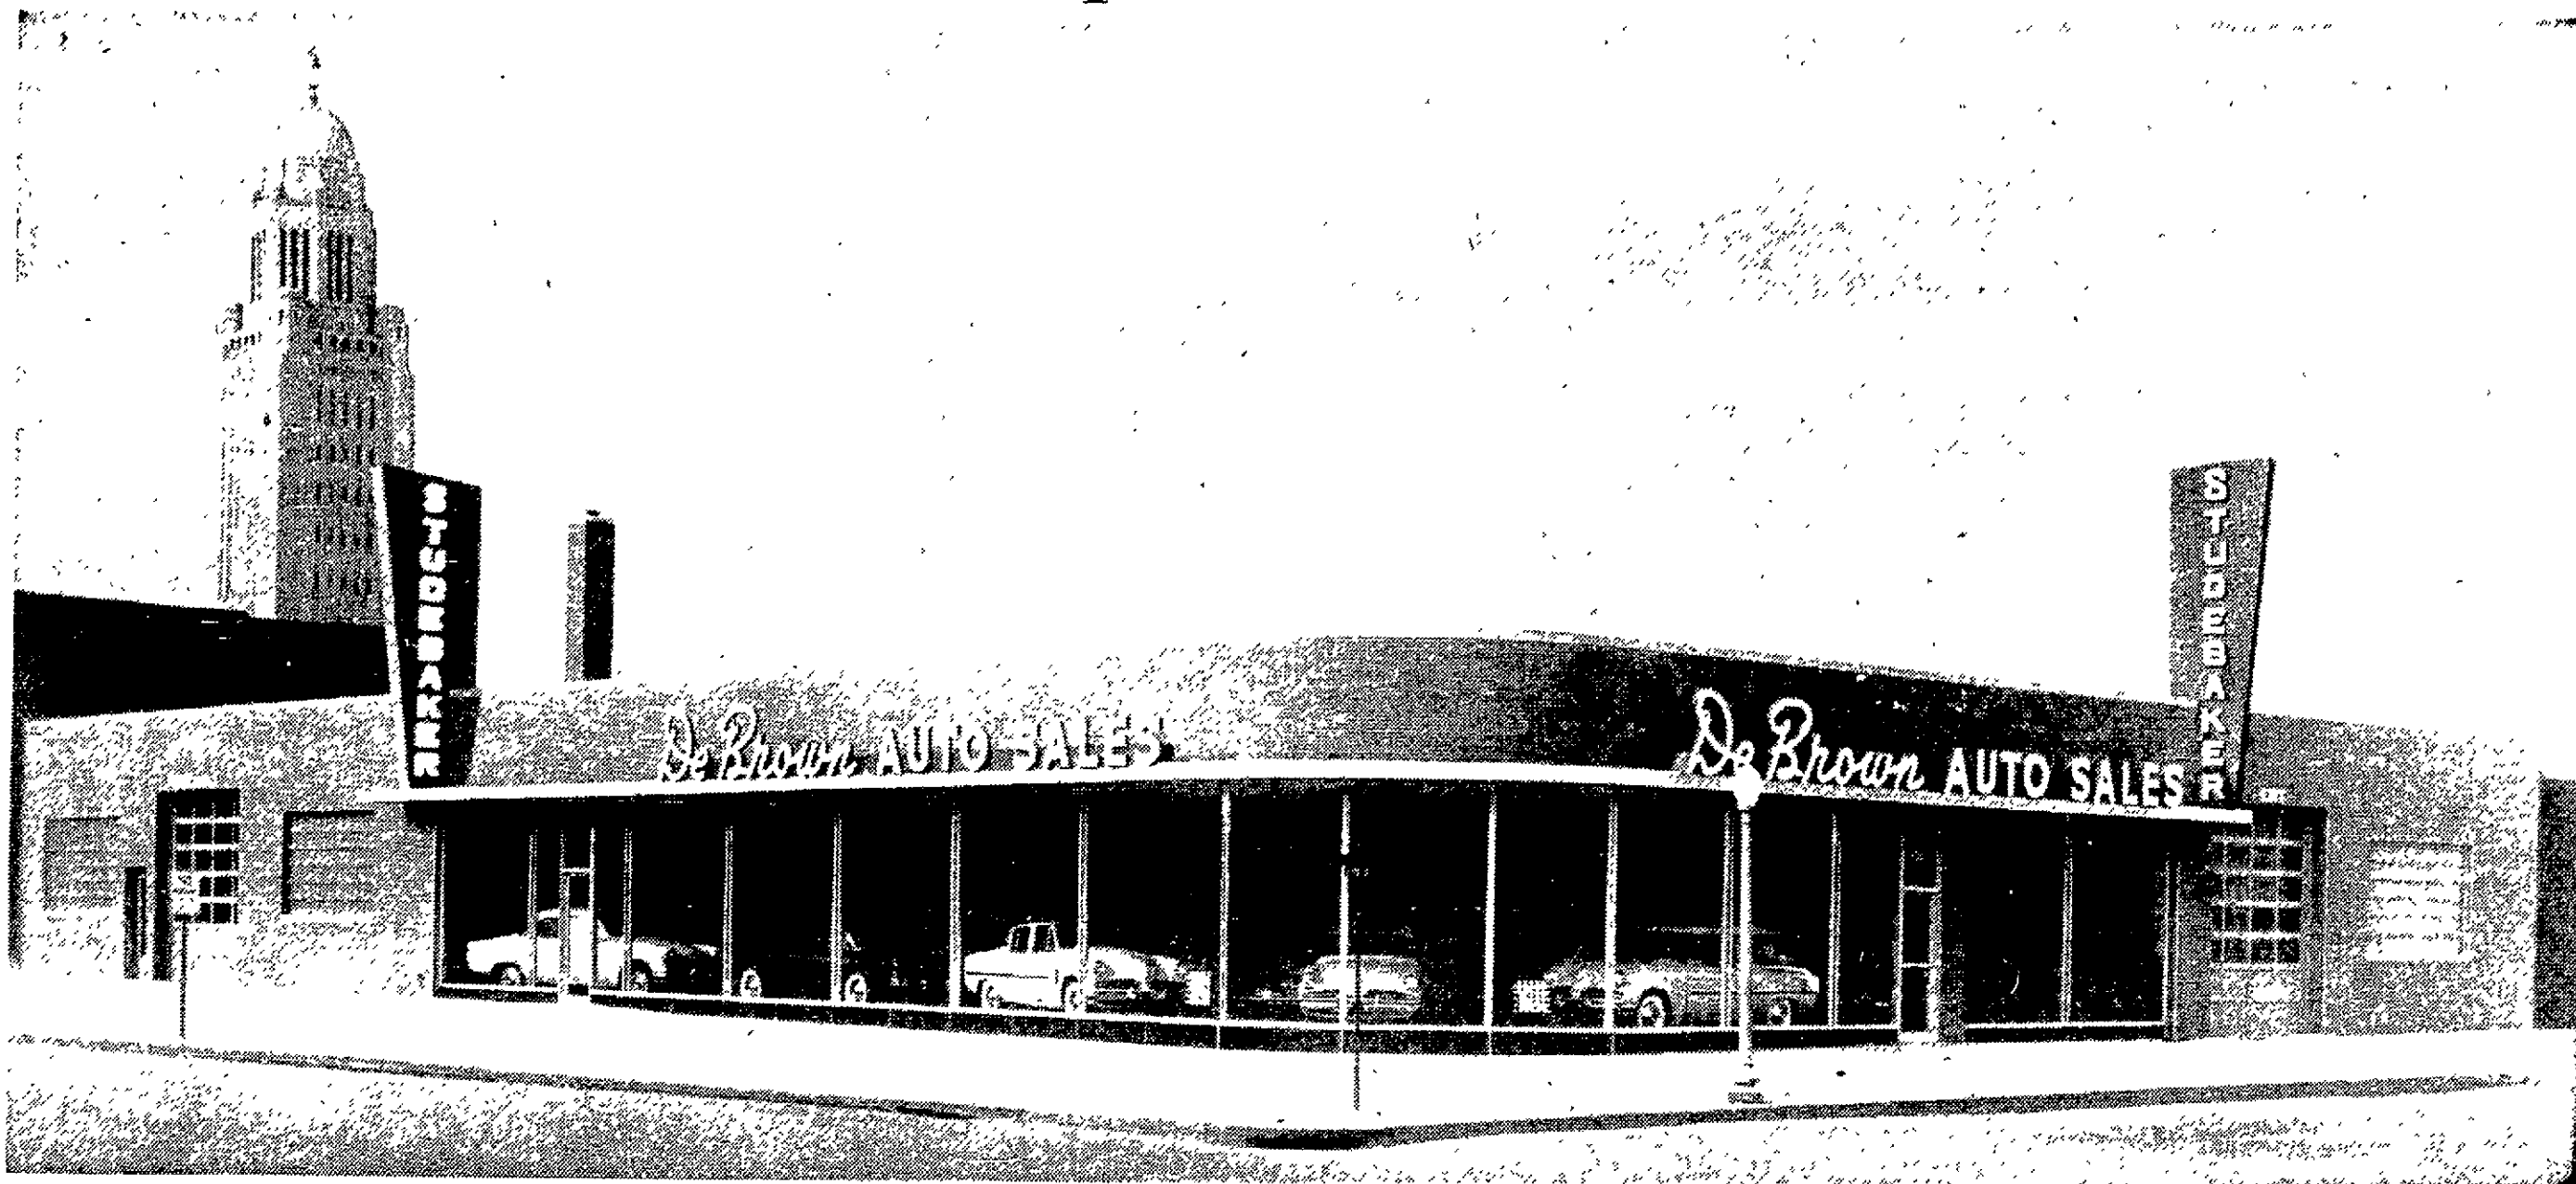

The DeBrown shop foreman, Folmer, also has spent some time in getting experience—25 years.

Larry Ruppert, who has been with the firm for a great many years, as parts manager. New car sales manager H. L. Tisdale can boast of a great many years working with the DeBrown company, and Bud Case, used car sales manager, is another "old timer."

Another of the leaders of the company is H. A. Martin, truck sales manager.

With this sort of a record to stand behind them, it is small wonder to see how DeBrown Studebaker can say, "We stand behind all our work all the way."

Ike's Top Economic Adviser Hopeful For Future

Administration Is Ready In Case Picture Worsens

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's top economic adviser, Arthur Burns, told the nation's state governors the current "business contraction" is one of the least serious in history and he was most hopeful for the future.

Burns, chairman of Eisenhower's Economic Advisory Council, said, however, the administration is busy rounding up an emergency public works program and a new tax cut plan for use in case the economic picture worsens instead of improves.

No details of possible further tax cut recommendations were given, but higher income tax exemptions have been suggested as one way of raising consumer purchasing power. Eisenhower himself has expressed belief that conditions will straighten out without invoking any slam-bang emergency plan.

Burns spoke to the governors privately, but a sum-up of his views was provided for reporters later by Frank Bane, executive secretary of the Governors' Conference.

Low Point

Bane said Burns expressed belief the business downturn has reached its low point and he was most hopeful that things will improve.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan, where there has been heavy unemployment in the auto industry, commented "they had nothing new to offer—I'm not encouraged."

Williams had said in advance he intended to ask whether the administration had any plans for an aid program designed to create new jobs and reduce unemployment.

Burns was quoted in the sum-up as saying that while industrial output has declined the financial and investment picture has improved, indicating business confidence in the future.

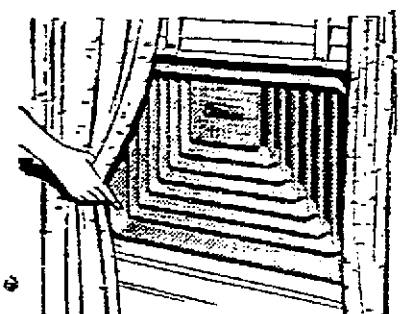

The governors wound up their two-day briefing by administration experts on major foreign and domestic problems with closed-door talks by Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey, Secretary of Defense Wilson, Budget Director Rowland R. Hughes and U. N. Ambassador John Cabot Lodge, among others.

Humphrey said on the general economic situation that the fact 60 million people are employed demonstrates "the remarkable transition" being made from a wartime to peacetime economy. "We see more signs every day to make us confident of the future," Humphrey said. "We are not headed for a depression."

Hodiak Sued

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — William Rice, 39-year-old invalid, filed suit for $50,000 damages today from actor John Hodiak and Allied Artists Studio on charges that he was blasted out of bed by an explosion set off on a movie set across the street from his home.

American Bus Lines, Inc., Creditors Notified To File Claims Against Firm

Creditors of American Bus Lines, Inc., which is currently undergoing reorganization under the Federal Bankruptcy Act, have been notified to file their claims against the company by May 31, Richard W. Smith, court-appointed trustee, said Wednesday.

"Up to this point," Smith added, "creditors have been very co-operative and persons with security interest in the company have not resorted to drastic action."

This has been helpful as efforts have been made to put the company on its financial feet, he said. American, which operates in 29 states, is a division of Transcontinental Trailways. Headquarters are in Lincoln.

Smith earlier filed a schedule listing $4,445,287.50 in claims of secured and unsecured creditors in connection with the reorganization proceedings.

Smith said he knew of no claims disputed "in any substantial amount." Any claims objected to will be heard by federal court in informal proceedings and the court will rule.

Unpaid Balance

Consideration currently is being given to what payments should be made to holders of conditional sales contracts with unpaid balances.

These contracts cover such items as buses on which money still is owing.

Smith said all methods and means of improving the company's financial health are being explored. The lines last year lost about one million dollars.

Unprofitable schedules and runs have been dropped or diminished with a resultant saving estimated tentatively at $150,000 a year, Smith said, although some runs may be resumed when heavier summer travel makes them more profitable.

Pay Reductions

In connection with wage economies, Smith said the contract offered the Amalgamated Association of Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees carries pay reductions averaging about 10 per cent. Members of the AFL Union currently are balloting on whether to accept the contract. Ballots are scheduled to be counted May 10.

In the absence of a contract, the pay for bargaining unit employees has been cut back an average of about 12½ or 13 per cent, Smith said. A good share of the cutback involves fringe benefits, he added.

The view is taken, Smith said, that with a three-year union contract, the firm could better interest outside money than it can without the contract. In short, he said, the firm could afford to pay more in wages under a contract than it can without the contract.

POSTCARD

Something like half a million people are going to Europe this year. Most of them apparently are going this week.

I have been sitting around New York for a week, waiting for a plane to Paris. And I had the entire TWA press department on my side. That will give you some idea.

American spent $1.3 million overseas last year. Such information comes to me from the alert U.S. Department of Commerce.

They spent $500 million getting there and $800 million tipping snooty French concierges and buying bric-a-brac.

This is a whacking amount of money. A lot of writing gentlemen sat down and wrote books. Advising people how to spend their money. And how to tip the snooty concierge.

"The language need not worry you as nearly everyone speaks English."

Well, now that I have picked myself up off the floor, I will tell you this is true.

Nearly everyone speaks English. Except the man you are talking to.

For this reason I have written my own guide. All phonetic for easy conversation.

"Avery voo days ooof?"

A very handy phrase. Though you will get mighty tired of eating eggs. Morning, noon and night. I also use this phrase for meaning "OK." Or as we say "everything is eggs in the beer."

After that I just sit there sullenly and eat what is brought to me. It is like a hole-in-one.

Once you have proved you are a linguist, why beat it to death.

I eat, dress and dream in nylon. American travelers all dress in nylon. Because the travel guides say so.

Foreigners are very sympathetic. No cottons and we have to wear our own clothes in the bathroom.

For a year now, I have been wearing shirts that are some other miracle fiber. Orlon or dacron or something like that.

They were highly touted to me by a traveling man.

"They dry in an hour and you don't iron them. Also they look it," he said.

However, they have an appearance of Oxford cloth. And Oxford cloth never looks completely ironed anyway.

My socks are nylon and dry overnight. Unfortunately I only get enthusiastic about washing them when I come in late at night. By morning they are still slightly damp. And I have to sit long over coffee while the socks swing in the breeze from the curtain cord. I couldn't get along without them.

One pair of nylon pajamas, three pairs of socks and shorts, two nylon shirts. That is my stylish wardrobe. So far it has worked out wonderfully. All you need is a sympathetic chambermaid to wash them and a strong breeze through the windows.

"You will love the handmade native articles. Do shop among the old streets, beside the sunny fountains."

Lady writer of guide books turns on this glowing advice.

I do this too. The first handmade native article I ever bought was a Parker "51" fountain pen in Rome.

The street vendor showed it briefly under his jacket. He gave me to understand it was hot as a sheriff's pistol. It was too. When that fountain pen unloaded, it squirted ink from both ends.

There is a small native factory in Rome turning out these handmade pens. But business is so brisk I expect they will be able to put in machinery this year.

Well, these are just some handy travel tips. By one of the billion dollar spenders. One who has made all the mistakes and can't seem to learn.

Be sure to take nylons, though. All the travel writers say so. And besides, if you don't, somebody might mistake you for a handmade native.

New Alexander Smith carpets with "Innerspring Weave"

Dress up your home for SPRING

Here's carpet beauty so lush you'll be thrilled to your toes.

We mean that literally, because standing on either of these Alexander Smith carpets with "Innerspring Weave" is like standing barefoot on the country club lawn. Luxuriously bouncy. Extravagant. Rich color. All yours to dress up your home in time for the Easter parade.

The secret of "Innerspring Weave" lies in the special way Alexander Smith pampers, tempers, and processes their yarns on the astonishing Thousand-Finger looms. They give you an unlimited number of colors in one carpet—they achieve that sculptured look with a patented multi-level weave instead of carving wool away.

Appliqué

Only $12.50 per square yard

Appliqué is really 3 carpets in 1. Low, curly bouclé, plushy cut-pile, high-twisted frizze—3 yarns, 3 levels—all in one magnificent carpet. It looks scandalously more expensive than it is...and wears as if it's 100% wool yarn have been mined instead of sheared from purebred sheep.

Greencrest

Only $8.50 per square yard

Greencrest feels and looks like $18 a yard. Its lovely, all-over floral motif done in smart decorator colors has the warm quality of bringing a room together. And remember—behind that velvet-glove feeling is iron-fist wear. (One lively family has had their Alexander Smith carpet for 30 years and it's still beautiful.)

See them—with your shoes off!

--But The Butterflies Won't Mind

ABOUT THE most unco-operative person we know is the weatherman—Here we have a May Basket week-end coming up and what happens? The WM makes all sorts of dire prophecies that involve rain, snow, wind and low temperatures—But we doubt very much if the younger generation and its May Basket activities will be much hampered—Understand that the elementary and junior high school youngsters have been working fast and furiously on May baskets—and floral arrangements—the best to be displayed at the Garden Club of Lincoln's annual spring flower show which opens at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon at First Federal Building—The show hours, incidentally, are from 5 o'clock until 10 o'clock Saturday—and from 9:30 o'clock to 7 o'clock on Sunday.

IT DOESN'T sound as though it would be a good week-end for butterflies, either—but we doubt that the Butterfly Bounce—the Junior League's annual spring dinner dance—will suffer because of the weather. The party, as you probably know, is to be at the Lincoln Country Club on Saturday evening, and will be in charge of the Junior League's provisional group.

Guest couples attending the affair will include Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin, Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holmquist and Mr. and Mrs. Joel Wright Jr., Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Trombly, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Salisbury, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Frazier, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilson.

AND on Saturday evening, so we learned, the University Club also will be a gay spot, for Saturday night is the night of the club's steak dinner—Among the no host groups attending will be one of 12 which includes Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Decker, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kirkman, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Swenson, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Deeter, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Weaver and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Philbrick of Omaha.

FROM Corning, N. Y. comes news of the arrival of a brand new Delta Upsilon legacy in the person of Brian Scott Behm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest E. Behm Jr., who put on an appearance on Sunday, April 25. Mrs. Behm is the former Betty Groth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Groth, and Alpha Phi at Nebraska. Brian's paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Behm, also of Lincoln. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Groth plan to leave next week for Corning where they will greet their grandson—and visit with Mr. and Mrs. Behm.

THIS morning we have news of brides-elect, and one of them is Miss Suzanne Adams, KKG at Nebraska, whose marriage to Robert S. Johnson of Council Bluffs will be solemnized in the very near future. On Tuesday evening, May 11, Miss Adams will be an honoree when Miss Bobbie Russell, Miss Sally Joe Speicher, Miss Marilyn Tyson and Miss Ann Kojer will be hostesses at a dessert supper and crystal shower, at the University Club.

ANOTHER Kappa bride-to-be, Miss Patricia Loder, whose marriage to Randall Ayer will take place on June 23, will share honors with her fiancé next Wednesday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard Anderson and their son, Allen; Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Volz, and their son, Robert, are hosts and hostesses at an informal supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson. The guest list will include the members of the bridal party, their escorts and dates. The honored guests will be presented with a host and hostess gift.

SERVING as coffee hosts and hostesses for the Circle Theater's current production, "The Moon is Blue," are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Korsmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Mason, Dr. and Mrs. K. E.

Lookabaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Gold, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Berck, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Kotecki, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Peterman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Shelley, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roosevelt,

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sewell, Mr. and Mrs. William D. Schlaebitz, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mastalir, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Benson, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. John Cramer, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kelly, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mahoney.

Mrs. Alice Spensley Rinehard of Chippewa Falls, Wis., second vice president of the Supreme Chapter of PEO, spoke to the more than 400 delegates, Tuesday, on "PEO Symphony," and a talk on "New Nations in Old Lands," was given by Nebraska Chief Justice Robert G. Simmons Tuesday evening.

Presiding at the convention is Mrs. Dwight McVicker of Lincoln, outgoing president, in whose honor a contribution to the PEO scholarship fund was made by her husband, her daughter, Mrs. Frank Marsh Jr., and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Sidney McVicker.

Following committee reports on Wednesday, a seminar on chapter problems was conducted by Mrs. Roy Livingston of Fairbury. Participating in the panel were Mrs. Rinehard, Mrs. Gellatly, Mrs. Smithberger, Mrs. Wade Stevens, and Mrs. Gladys Benthack of Lexington, president of Chapter AN.

The delegates discussed amendments pertaining to the scholastic loan fund for high school girls, and Mrs. Faunell Pickett of Norfolk, area chairman, reported on the Cottey College program when the $250 scholarship to the college, presented annually by the state PEO, was awarded to Miss Joanne Hunt of Tecumseh.

At Wednesday's meeting also, special recognition was given to three 50-year chapters, Fremont, North Platte and Madison.

State PTA Demands School Aid

Dr. Galen Saylor of Lincoln, president of the Nebraska Congress of Parents and Teachers, Wednesday afternoon addressed the more than 500 delegates attending the group's state convention at Nebraska City and reiterated the state organization's support of a state sales or income tax to finance schools.

Faced with an enrollment increase in Nebraska schools of over 10,000 a year, and with a serious shortage of teachers which could become critical in the next few years, the state

PTA favors the sales or income tax rather than putting the extra financial load on the property owners of Nebraska, according to Dr. Saylor.

"If the state legislature decides in favor of the sales or income tax, we shall support their work; if not, the PTA organization which is ready to take steps to see that state aid necessary to maintain the schools is provided, will then decide the course to be taken," Dr. Saylor said.

Dr. Saylor continued that Nebraska has the lowest requirements for teachers of any state in the Union, stands fourth from the bottom in salaries for teachers, and provides the least state aid for schools of any in the country.

Convention activities were opened Wednesday with a series of workshops and a luncheon for PTA council presidents and district directors. Mrs. Russell Bickel of Columbus, O., secretary of the National Congress of PTA, was a featured speaker Wednesday afternoon, and addressing the group at the evening banquet was Gov. Robert Crosby.

3 Scout Districts Hold Conservation Camporee

Two Lincoln Boy Scout Districts—North Star and Pioneer—joined with neighboring Arbor Lodge District for a conservation camporee on the Joy Spohn farm, located about 33 miles southeast of Lincoln on the Little Nemaha River.

Twenty-five units, composed of 300 boys and their leaders, participated in the event which was held in connection with President Eisenhower's request that the Boy Scouts make conservation a Good Turn during 1954.

After being assigned a campsite by Donald Thompson of Syracuse, the units gathered for a campfire talk on "Conservation of Wildlife" by Wade Hamer of the State Game, Forestation and Parks Commission.

Another event on the agenda was a hike—which included five groups of 40 boys—to five project areas set up by Gene O'Donnel of the Soil Conservation work group. The projects and speakers were:

Retention dam, Gene O'Donnel.
Soil profile, Sev. Sorenson, agriculture instructor at Nebraska City High School.
Grasses and waterways, Henry Schummel of Nebraska City.
Plotting and construction, Don Venema of Syracuse.
Surveying, Bob Richter of Syracuse.

Also included on the camporee schedule were competitive Scouting events, singing, stunts and yells.

Judging of the competitive tests was made by Explorers of Posts 1, 10, 12, 51 and 56, and awards were made after the various units were graded as a patrol and as a troop. Blue ribbons were given units which scored 2,550 points or more, red for 1,000 points or more and white for under 1,000 points.

The awards:

Clarks School Issue Rejected

Lincoln Star Special
CLARKS, Neb. — A special $165,000 school bond issue failed to carry in an election held here. In a good turnout of voters, 223 opposed the issue with 113 in favor.

The bonds would have been used for construction of a gymnasium-auditorium and three elementary classrooms.

Robert Strickland, superintendent of schools, said they now have only a small gymnasium. The elementary rooms are needed since the school is part of a re-districting plan, he said.

Early Lead Gives Dupas Nod Over Older Brady

By ED TUNSTALL
NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Speedy Ralph Dupas of New Orleans piled up a tremendous advantage in the early rounds to score a unanimous 10-round decision over Dennis Pat Brady of New York in a nationally-televised lightweight fight here Wednesday night.

Dupas weighed 137, B r a d y 138 1/2.

The swift 18-year-old Dupas, rated No. 5 in the lightweight division, sped to an overwhelming margin in the first four rounds by carrying the fight to the rugged New Yorker.

Dupas repeatedly beat Brady to the punch with a dazzling left hook and opened up cuts over both eyes in the early rounds.

The 26-year-old Brady, a veteran of 95 professional fights, seemed bewildered as the New Orleans high school student continually rushed in with a two-handed attack. Dupas opened a wide gash over Brady's right eye in the first round and the cut appeared to bother him for the rest of the fight.

Brady rarely had the opportunity to use his famous left hook as Dupas either tied him up or rushed him to the ropes with lightning-like charges.

Brady came back strong in the middle rounds with a futile at-

North-South Champ Edged

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP) — Billy Joe Patton, the Morganton, N.C., wholesale lumberman with the lightning-fast backswing, scrambled superlatively Wednesday morning to eliminate defending champion Bill Campbell in the second round of the North and South Amateur Golf Tournament.

During the afternoon he settled down to turn back stubborn 19-year-old Jennings Randolph Jr. of Washington, D.C., and gain the quarter-finals. Both scores were 3 and 1.

Today Patton faces Curtis Person, 43-year-old Memphis, Tenn., automobile dealer, who survived a pair of extra hole struggles. Person, conqueror of Frank Stranahan, bounced medalist Ben Goodes of Reidsville, N.C., out of the tournament this afternoon on the 19th hole after outlasting Tom Draper, Birmingham, Mich., in 20 holes this morning. Goodes had gained the third round by trouncing the 1951 champion, Hobart Manley of Savannah, Ga., 5 and 4.

Princesses Of The Doane Night Relays

Huskers Seek Snap Four-Game Losing Streak Against Buffs

A wounded University of Nebraska baseball crew which suffered four straight Big Seven Conference defeats during the past week is regrouping its forces for home battle with Colorado Friday and Saturday and Kansas State on Monday and Tuesday.

Game time Friday is 3 p.m., with the Saturday tilt slated for 2 p.m.

Untried in loop competition, the Buffaloes have won eight straight non-conference games—four from Colorado A&M, two from Colorado Mines and two from Regis.

Nebraska had won six and lost two before meeting disaster at Oklahoma and Kansas State, dropping two games to each. The losses gave the Huskers a 2-4 mark in the conference and 6-6 for the season.

Scarlet batting averages which had been fattened at the expense of Tulsa, Houston, Texas and Kansas also suffered against the Sooners and Wildcats.

Only Second Baseman Fred Seger, Omaha, kept his mark intact. Seger, who has hit safely in every game Nebraska has played this year, has a .346 mark. Only other hitters left in the .300 bracket are Pat Mallette, Uehling, .318; Jim Cederdahl, Lincoln, .317; and Norm Coufal, David City, .316.

"We just fell apart" is the way Coach Tony Sharpe describes the four-game fiasco.

Dick Geier, Lincoln lefthander, is the likely pitching nominee for Friday's game as Sharpe seeks to put the Huskers back on the winning track. Jerry Shaw, Mitchell, S.D., or possibly Brian Sievers, North Platte, up from the "B" squad, may go on Saturday, Sharpe said.

Otherwise the Nebraska lineup will look like this:

Softball Meeting

Teams interested in entering the Lincoln city softball leagues are asked to send representatives to a meeting, May 4, at the city hall. The meeting will start at 7:30 p.m.

Grand Island Parimutuel Races Will Open Today

Lincoln Star Special
GRAND ISLAND — The first race meet ever to be held in Grand Island under parimutuel racing laws will open at Fonner Park, at the southeast edge of Grand Island today.

The Grand Island races will open Thursday and run through Saturday, May 15. No racing is planned for Sundays or Mondays. Post time for the first race each day will be at 3:30 p.m., except on Saturdays when the program opener is scheduled for 2:30 p.m.

The Grand Island meet will kickoff the Nebraska racing season for 1954.

A plentiful supply of horses—around 600 of them—are stabled at the Third City plant. Many of them arrived early and have been working out ever since the end of winter weather.

Construction of the 2,000 seat grandstand, installation of the Totalisator board and the laying of an oil mat walk and pavilion have been completed and the entire plant now is in readiness for the meet.

The Grandstand is completely covered by roof and the parimutuel windows and concession stands are below the grandstand, all of which affords protection to the fans in the event of rainy weather. Warm and clean rest rooms have been installed, complete with attendants.

Slade Replaces Jackson in Ring Ratings

NEW YORK (AP)—Hurricane Tommy Jackson dipped to fifth place Wednesday in the latest Ring Magazine heavyweight ratings while Jimmy Slade, his conqueror, became the No. 4 challenger for Rocky Marciano's title.

The Jackson upset at Eastern Parkway Monday shuffled the ratings in both the heavy and light heavy classes for Slade had been No. 3 in the 175-pound class. As the New York state heavyweight titleholder he was moved to the bigger division.

Ezzard Charles, the ex-champ from Cincinnati who fights Marciano for the title June 17, remains the leading contender. He is followed by Cuba's Nino Valdes and Britain's Don Cockell who dropped Roland LaStarza to sixth.

There was a slight shuffle in the middleweight ranks, topped by Carl (Bobo) Olson, who was named fighter of the month for his fine defense against welter champ Kid Gavilan.

Bobby Jones' knockout of Gil Turner moved him into the middleweight picture and Pierre Langlois was dropped out of the top 10 after his defeat by welter champion Basilio. Bobby Dykes was rated No. 10 in the middleweight division.

Basilio remained the top challenger to Gavilan in the 147-pound class but Del Flanagan was placed second, ahead of Billy Graham because of Graham's inactivity.

Orlando Zulueta became the second lightweight challenger, replacing Eddie Chavez who went into the Army. Arthur Persley moved up to sixth on his victory over Armand Savoie and Cisco Andrade of Compton, Calif., took ninth place.

Nate Brooks' upset by Mickey Mars was big news among the bantams, dropping Brooks to fifth. Jake Tuli lost his first place rating among the flyweights by losing to Dane Bini. Tanny Camp took over as No. 1. The ratings:

Gavins Point Acres Asked By Commission

Request for acquisition of 1,375 acres of land for public use and access in the Gavins Point Reservoir area has been forwarded to the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers by the Nebraska Game, Forestation and Parks Commission.

Paul T. Gilbert, Executive Secretary of the Game Commission, in giving the background of the request, stated, "Originally the Corps of Engineers and the Game Commission had arrived at a compromise take line which did not provide for any large wildlife areas or large recreational areas but did provide for adequate protection of the public from infringement by private interests."

"The original compromise take line was later restricted by 4,000 acres on both the Nebraska and South Dakota sides by a new policy issued to the Corps of Engineers," he continued.

"The present request of the Game Commission will assure only minimum area for public use and in the opinion of the Commission will not mitigate the loss of wildlife habitat," he concluded.

The requested 1,375 acres of land is broken up into nine different areas. The largest area is the Devil's Nest region, which consists of a particularly rugged and primitive 990 acres. While much of the requested land was in the original take line, only a small part lies within the revised take line. The revised take line only allows acquisition of land in a horizontal strip extending 300 feet back from the high water mark.

According to the Commission request, "The Nebraska side of the reservoir is not favored with an abundance of bays or inlets and roads into the reservoir area are for the most part non-existent."

"It is therefore evident that at those sites where access can be made available to the public at desirable points, extremely heavy use will be realized and that adequate area must be provided at the few such sites that will exist."

It was also pointed out in the request, "that no apparent consideration has been given to the Coordination Act of August 14, 1946 (Public Law 732)." This law provides for mitigation of wildlife losses caused by Federal water use projects such as the inundation of wildlife food and habitat area in the Gavins Point Reservoir.

The Nebraska Commission request emphasized, "The cost of measures to prevent or mitigate (wildlife) losses should absolutely be incorporated into the project at this time."

The estimated loss of wildlife resources in this project has been set at $16,000 annually by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service. Over a 100 year period, this will result in a wildlife loss exceeding 1 1/2 million dollars.

Wesleyan Rated High In NAIA Cage Figures

Nebraska Wesleyan University rated in four of seven categories in the final Association of Intercollegiate Athletics statistical report released today.

Concordia of Seward, ranking 11th in team defense after holding opponents to 60.4 points per game, was the only other Nebraska team listed in the final NAIA report.

Coach Irvin L. Peterson's Plainsmen ranked 46th amongst the nation's smaller colleges in team field goals with a 37.0 per cent record in 23 games on 900 huts in 1953 casts. The Plainsmen were 47th in team offense with their 70.6 per game mark and rated 26th in team defense after limiting foes to 63.7 per contest.

Paul Fredstrom, who shot field goals at a 47.5 clip after joining the Plainsmen in mid-January, ranked 43rd among all comers in this individual statistical department.

Bevo Francis of Rio Grande was recognized as the individual offense leader with his 1296 points in 27 games averaging 48 per contest.

Jackson Suspended For 30-Day Span

NEW YORK (AP)—Hurricane Tommy Jackson, who was defeated by Jimmy Slade Monday night, was suspended for 30 days Wednesday by Chairman Bob Christenberry of the New York state athletic commission. A medical examination revealed the heavyweight had a swelling in his right upper forearm.

Dr. Mal Stevens, head of the medical advisory board; Dr. Ira McCown, medical director of the commission; and Dr. Samuel Swetnick, the club physician at Eastern Parkway Monday, all examined the boxer. It was on their recommendation that Christenberry took action.

Jackson also asked about reported statements after the fight that he expected to lose and blamed his mother for bothering him. The boxer apologized to the commission and his mother, who was present, saying he had been wrong in saying such things but lost his head in the disappointment of defeat.

Lightbody, Willoughby Named NWU Captains

Jim Lightbody, Nebraska City, and Scotty Willoughby, Lincoln, the lone seniors on Coach Irvin L. Peterson's 1953-54 Nebraska Wesleyan University cage crew, have been named co-captains by their team mates.

Lightbody and Willoughby were the top offensive performers for the Plainsmen throughout the 23 game season and capped their efforts by being named to all major Nebraska College Conference all-star teams at the end of the year.

Lightbody added honors when he was named to the third National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics All-American five, chosen by the NAIA in cooperation with the Helms Foundation of Los Angeles.

Cleveland Peddles Simpson To Minors

BOSTON (AP)—Outfielder Harry (Suitcase) Simpson, who in three seasons with the Cleveland Indians never lived up to his minor league promise as a hitter, was sold by the tribe Wednesday to its Indianapolis farm club.

Other American League clubs waived on Simpson, who suffered an arm fracture in spring training in Arizona but now is almost ready to resume play.

National Pro Grid League Plans Saturday TV Slate

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Football League will televise a heavy program of Saturday pro football next fall, including two Saturday afternoon games on a coast-to-coast network, in addition to its Sunday afternoon "games of the week" and various regional telecasts.

Plans for the 1954 season were announced Wednesday by Bert Bell, NFL commissioner, and Thomas J. McMahon, director of sports for the DuMont television network.

More than 60 games will be shown either nationally or regionally from Sept. 25 through Dec. 11. From four to seven games will be televised each weekend.

In all cases the games will be "blackout" in the city and immediate area in which they are played. The blackouts include Green Bay when the Packers' "home" games in Milwaukee are televised.

The two Saturday afternoon games to be aired are Baltimore at Los Angeles, Dec. 4, and Baltimore at San Francisco, Dec. 11. The schedule for the Sunday telecasts has not been completed. One "game of the week" to be chosen as the season progresses, will be carried each Sunday on a national network of from 50 to 100 stations. In addition, "road" games of the teams will be televised in their home territory over regional station lineups.

All nine of the Saturday night games will be carried on regional station lineups, whose cities will depend on the teams playing and the sponsors.

The basic Saturday night schedule:

Oct. 2, Washington at Pittsburgh and New York at Baltimore; Oct. 9, Pittsburgh at Philadelphia; Oct. 16, Baltimore at Detroit; Oct. 23, Philadelphia at Pittsburgh; Oct. 30, Green Bay at Philadelphia; Nov. 6, Detroit at Baltimore; Nov. 13, Baltimore at Green Bay at Milwaukee; and Nov. 20, San Francisco at Pittsburgh.

Six of the eight National League shutout leaders since 1946 have been lefthanders.

A Pleasure to Give...a Treasure to Receive

When you think of giving, why not think of fine whiskey? And when you think of fine whiskey naturally you think of Seagram's 7 Crown. It's America's favorite whiskey...perfect as a birthday, an anniversary or a "thank you" present. Giving a bottle of 7 Crown or treating a friend to a drink made with 7 Crown is a splendid way to tell him: "Only the finest is fine enough for you!"

Patterson Is Re-Elected Institute Head

By BARCLAY BAYLEY
Star Staff Writer

The 48th annual Farmers Institute in Havelock was completed Wednesday with an election of officers, the awarding of contest prizes, and auctioning of food prize winners.

Clarence Patterson was re-elected president of the Institute at the noon luncheon held in the City Hall and attended by 250 persons. Other officers are: Pearle Finigan, vice president; Maurice Hall, secretary; A. E.

Jewell, treasurer; and Maurice Carlton Jr., assistant secretary.

The ladies department of the Institute elected Mrs. P. G. Kriener president and Mrs. Edgar Lippe assistant.

The auction of the prize-winning foods was reported as "the most successful on record," especially the sale of cakes. The prize-winning angel food brought $13.25 and the grand champion, a chocolate, brought $18.50.

A total of 32 cakes brought $297. The entire food auction total was $447 and added to the luncheon receipts brought the total to $725 for the Institute. All profits from the auction will go to the Farmers Institute, as in past years.

A. H. Larson and Hugh Willis each won a purebred gilt in the drawing. Only names of those who had facilities to raise hogs were entered and the two winners this year must each donate two gilts to the drawing next year.

This first-place angel food cake brought $13.25 in the auction of foods at the close of the Havelock Farmer's Institute.

Two Pilots Hurt In Crash Of Jet At Offutt Air Base

OMAHA (U)—Two pilots suffered lacerations and bruises late Wednesday when their T-33 jet trainer crashed while landing at Offutt Air Force Base here.

Offutt spokesmen identified the two, both second lieutenants, as Frederick H. Brown, 22, and Robert E. Lynch, 23, both assigned to the 85th Fighter-Interceptor Squadron at Scott Air Force Base, Ill. Home towns were unavailable.

The two were reported in satisfactory condition.

Request For Zone Change Is Denied

The City Planning Commission has denied the application of C. R. Barmore for a change in zoning from residential to industrial of property on Garland between 64th and 65th.

The applicant intended to use the property for the manufacturing of concrete blocks and building materials. Other applications and the Commission's action.

Application of J. W. and C. R. Mowbray to use property at 401 No. 48th as a trailer camp, denied.

Application of the State of Nebraska to use property east of 16th between H and J as a parking lot, approved.

NU Engineers Expect 10,000 At Open House

More than 10,000 spectators are expected to attend the 42nd annual Engineers' Open House Thursday at the University of Nebraska.

Sponsored by the College of Engineering and Architecture, the event will run from 2 p.m. to 10 p.m.

All of the demonstrations and displays are the work of the students in the College for the visitor's enjoyment and education. The theme is "Engineering—It's All Around Us."

The starting point is at 11th and R at the Architectural Hall, where the architect's way of attacking a program, from research to construction, will be shown.

Electricity
At Ferguson Hall, the electrical engineers will display the wizardry of electricity, such as allowing a person to read a page which is revolving at 3600 r.p.m.

The mechanical engineers will place emphasis on jet engines, the civil engineers on the new hydraulics and sanitation laboratories, the chemical engineers on color, military engineers on bridges, agricultural engineers on tractor testing methods, and engineering mechanics on precision measuring.

Friday, the engineers will attend a convocation at 11 a.m. at Love Library Auditorium, where Harry Wesley Brown, a production design engineer, will speak on "Engineers in Industry."

In the afternoon, the annual Engineers' picnic and field day will be held at Pioneer Park. At the Lincoln Hotel at 7 p.m., the annual awards banquet will be held, at which time the O. J. Ferguson award will be presented to the outstanding senior in the college.

600 Expected To Attend Nebraska Medical Session

More than 600 doctors from Nebraska and surrounding states are expected to attend the 86th annual session of the Nebraska State Medical Association May 10 through May 13 at the Cornhusker Hotel, according to Dr. James F. Kelly of Omaha, president.

He said the meeting would include postgraduate training courses and business meetings by officers and delegates of the association and many other activities of interest. The session has been held annually since 1868.

The group of nationally known speakers who will present the postgraduate lectures and panel discussions, come from many parts of the country such as Denver, Washington, D.C., Minneapolis, Philadelphia and Milan, Mich. Many of these subjects will cover the latest information on medical care, research, and concepts of present day practice.

The governing bodies of the association chosen by the members will have a full agenda.

Many decisions will have to be made by the board of trustees, board of counselors, and the house of delegates.

Monday morning, May 10, will be the opening session of the house of delegates. The afternoon will be devoted to "All Sports Day" Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday will be filled with more meetings of the governing bodies and presentation of scientific material, postgraduate instructions, movies and other activities. On Wednesday evening the annual banquet will be held for all members and their wives at which time those doctors who have practiced medicine for half a century will receive their 50-year practitioner pins.

The ladies auxiliary will also hold its annual meeting at the hotel, with Mrs. James P. Donegan, president, of Omaha in charge of the program. There will be 32 scientific exhibits by pharmaceutical houses throughout the country who will display their latest products to the visiting doctors.

Queen Visits Uganda Despite Threat

ENTEBBE, Uganda (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II defied a Mau Mau death threat and flew to Uganda Wednesday on her world tour. And thousands of Buganda tribesmen, ignoring nationalist demands that they stay away, turned out in a tremendous welcome to the young monarch.

Elizabeth, all smiles, stepped from the British airliner which Kwini Elizabeth brought her to this British protectorate in East Africa from Aden, accompanied by her husband, the Duke of Edinburgh.

Thousands of tribesmen clapped their hands and waved in a traditional welcome to their "Kwini Elizabeth."

Some of the women wore native dress—shoulderless, brightly-hued gowns with sashes of colored velvet. Others had European style clothes flown in for the occasion.

But strict security precautions were taken to guard Elizabeth and her husband. Native police lined the two mile route from the airport to government house, where 5,000 guests attended an afternoon garden party in honor of the royal guests. The queen drove under triumphal arches festooned with warmly-worded greetings on the way to Government House for a ceremonial welcome and investiture ceremony preceding lunch and the garden party.

The Mau Mau threat came in a letter from Dedan Kimathi, a leader of the anti-white terror society which has been waging war against British colonial authorities in neighboring Kenya. Kimathi was reported to have been seen recently in Kampala, near Entebbe.

The government abandoned plans of Elizabeth to visit Kam-

Animals To Get Week's Spotlight

Special attention will be devoted to animal friends for a week starting Sunday. The 40th annual Be Kind To Animals Week is being sponsored by the American Humane Association and more than 600 local animal protective organizations.

Wilton Van Sickle, president of the Lancaster County Humane Society, said that during the week "we want to concentrate attention on the need for caring for animals throughout the entire year."

Asked about the Lancaster County Humane Society's effort in prosecuting offenders of the anti-cruelty laws, Van Sickle said, "humane societies don't have to prosecute very often any more. The educational work done in recent years is showing good results. This annual Be Kind To Animals Week is a good case in point. It always accomplishes a good deal of educational work."

The Society invites the public to visit its shelter, 2320 Park Blvd., throughout the week and see at first hand what is being done.

pal. Authorities decided also against a 72-mile road journey through the bush to open a new dam at Jinja. Elizabeth will fly to Jinja.

Nationalists in Buganda had forbidden their tribesmen from taking part in a welcome to Elizabeth because of British government action in exiling their monarch, young Mutesa II. Buganda is one of the Uganda protectorate's four provinces. The government cracked down on Mutesa because he demanded that the British set a date for granting independence to his territory.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (not acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.

They're biting well—but this is my quota

Good sportsmen are "limit-minded"

by don herold

I'm no soap-boxer. I'm for fun. When I wrote that book, "Drunks Are Driving Me To Drink," I said nothing against gentleman drinkers.

Fishing is fascinating. But good sportsmen take real pride in stopping in all things at—or before—their limit.

It may seem strange that a distillery wants to put across the idea of moderation. But that's why Stitzel-Weller asked me to write these messages.

They want moderate-minded, gentlemanly sportsmen as customers for their fine, old-family Kentucky bourbon, OLD CABIN STILL. They've found outdoor men like its outdoor flavor—the result of Stitzel-Weller's slow, patient, costly, old fashioned, sour mash, watchful-waiting method the family has used for generations.

They say, further, that if you are going to be moderate, you should drink a whiskey you can taste. OLD CABIN STILL has flavor balance; it is bottled at 93—mild enough in proof, yet rich and round in flavor.

These people do not gather bourbon from other distilleries. They conscientiously distill and age every precious drop of Old CABIN STILL right under their own eyes.

Army-Joe Probe Could Bring Perjury Charges, Resignations Or Reprimands

WASHINGTON (AP)—The current McCarthy-Pentagon inquiry could lead to perjury charges, forced resignations, or just reprimands.

Or, of course, if no improper tactics were found on anybody's part, all parties could be cleared.

The verdict of the Senate Investigations Subcommittee, which is conducting the inquiry, will come in the form of a report to its parent, the Senate Government Operations Committee. There may be majority and minority reports if the senators disagree.

Presumably the parent body will file the findings with the Senate.

Sen. Mundt (R-SD), acting chairman of the subcommittee, and others have said that if all parties stick to their stories, the Justice Department may be alerted to prosecute for perjury.

Depending upon the findings, it is conceivable there might be some resignations among McCarthy aids or Army officials. Or the net result could be subcommittee findings criticizing either side, or both, with no further action.

If the findings should go heavily against McCarthy, it is not known what action might be taken. The Senate has power to expel members, but this is rarely done, and there is no indication such action would be taken.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nearly everyone connected with the McCarthy-Pentagon hearing was concerned about the potentiality of war and whether a free Indo-China can be saved from Communist domination. It is respectfully suggested that rebroadcasts of the Geneva conference would mean a great deal more to all of us than the Army-McCarthy controversy. This would be placing first things first.

Red Probe

Sen. Symington (D-Mo.) proposed that the staff of the Senate Investigations Subcommittee be assigned temporarily to another committee to carry on its investigation of Communism "in government or anywhere else."

Sen. McCarthy had protested that the present hearings were disrupting the committee's work in the Red-hunting field.

Symington said the regular staff of the committee was not assigned to the McCarthy-Army hearings and thus could be made available for work elsewhere.

Acting Chairman Mundt has called a meeting of the committee for Thursday (8 a.m. CST) to consider points of procedure, and a presumably Symington's proposal could be considered then.

Lincoln Sowers Greeted With Western Hospitality During Visits To 13 Towns

Lincoln Star Special

AINSWORTH, Neb. — True Western hospitality greeted the Lincoln Sowers, Chamber of Commerce good-will group, as they visited 13 western Nebraska communities Wednesday.

The Sowers had dinner and spent the night at Ainsworth. Pat Eurt served as master of ceremonies for the Sowers with Ray Ramsey speaking for the Lincoln group. Sowers president, R. J. Cederdahl, and entertainer Bill Morton followed the meal-stop custom and appeared on the program.

The group started the day with an old-fashioned western smorgasbord breakfast which included five meat courses at the Drake Hotel in Alliance.

The first morning stop was at Hemingford where they were greeted by 400 persons and the high school band.

Crawford

At Crawford, 500 persons welcomed the Sowers, including Mayor Arthur Howe, Chamber of Commerce president William Hudson, Superintendent of Schools Carl Ludington and Chamber secretary Ed Farwell. The high school band directed by Bob Peterson was also on hand.

The Sowers were furnished with a police escort through the downtown district when they arrived at Chadron. Police Chief Vern Storey, Chamber president Sam McGown and secretary Barney Barnes led the group of 100 persons to welcome them.

Hay Springs mayor, H. E. Hardin, and mayor-elect, Charles Gaswich, met the group at the next stop. Approximately 300 persons, including the high school band directed by Ray Friday, met them.

At Rushville, the Sowers were met by 250 persons including the
